ANITA THOMSON IS AT REST
AMONG A BOWER OF FLOWERS
Beautiful Floral Tributes From Friends
Tell of High Esteem in Which
She Was Held

The funeral of Miss Anita Phoebe Thomson was held this morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Thomson. It was announced that the funeral would be a private one, but so great was the affection of many friends, and so sincere their grief, that the residence was crowded long before the hour announced for the services, and there were present teachers and schoolmates, and friends young and old, of the beautiful girl whose passing has brought such sorrow to many.

The house was a bower of beautiful spring bloom, making a fitting environment for lovely Anita Thomson, who has never looked so beautiful as when she lay peacefully asleep. From all sides came superb floral tributes, and from all classes came expressions of deep regret.

The beautiful floral offerings completely filled the house, and Anita Thomson's last hours in her home were spent amid a wilderness of bloom.

- SERVICES AT HOME.

Pinkerton Detectives Guard 200 Men Imported to Break the Strike

Warehouse Employees Demand 35 Cents an Hour for Nine-Hour Day

CROCKETT, June 13.—Trouble between 200 striking warehouse employees of the California-Hawaiian Sugar Refining Company located here and that number of imported strikebreakers and Pinkerton men from San Francisco is hourly expected, as both the officials of the company and the representatives of the Warehouse Workers' union, No. 527, have passed their ultimatums, holding out firmly for their demands. On the part of the union it is asked that wages for handling all products be increased to a straight 35 cents an hour and that nine constitute a working day where heretofore 30 cents an hour has been paid for handling refined products and 35 cents for unrefined in a ten-hour day.

At noon today it was reported that there had been no disturbances between the union men and the strikebreakers though a large number of strikebreakers had left town owing to influence brought to bear by the union picket line.

Strenuous efforts are being made by the union men to reach the workers and in many instances when they have had talks with them, the strikebreakers have left town to seek other employment. There are, however, numbers arriving on every train and work on the docks and in the warehouses proceeds. This morning a gang of men were set to work in unloading the steamer Lurline, laden with raw product from Hawaii.

Strikers in groups hang about every important corner for the purpose of gaining speech with any strikebreaker who shows himself, but peace and order have reigned so far today. Deputy Sheriff Ware is on the scene with a number of officers ready to cope with any situation that presents itself.

For some time the warehouse men have been discontented and last week when General Manager George M. Rolph

Atkins Admits American Sugar Company Control Sugar Refineries of California

Big Corporation Owns 49 Per Cent of Stock in Alameda Concern

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Efforts to discover whether non-competitive zones have been established by the American Sugar Refining Company, in an attempt to control prices, marked the resumption today of the sugar trust inquiry.

Edwin F. Atkins, acting head of the sugar corporation, who became an official of the company two years ago, declared that the American Sugar Refining Company owned practically a majority of stock in the sugar refineries in California, and that it did not attempt to compete with them.

He gave as the reason for this abandonment of the coast business the freight rate difference of a half-cent a pound on sugar transported from the Eastern refineries. This, he insisted, was the principal failure of competition.

The witness said that 50 per cent of the Western Sugar Refining Company in California was owned by the American Sugar Refining Company, while the Spreckels family owned the other 50 per cent. The American also owned, Atkins said, 49 per cent in the Alameda Sugar Refining Company. What the purpose of the purchase of this stock was Atkins was unable to tell the committee.

DENIES UNDERSTANDING.

"Do you have any understanding that there should be no competition?" asked Representative Malby of New York.

"So far as my knowledge goes there is not the slightest," Atkins said.

Malby sought light on the method of electing directors in the California companies, but Atkins was able to give him no satisfaction.

Judge Seawell to Hear Further Argument Before Final Action

Subordinate Officials Perplexed by the Many and Varied Complications

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—The well oiled machinery which had been prepared by counsel for John F. Seymour this morning, whereby Judge Seawell was to quash all of the accusations and legal proceedings by signing his decision rendered orally yesterday, slipped a cog by reason of the interference of Attorney Bell and the whole matter will be discussed at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Judge Smith, representing Seymour, appeared before Judge Seawell at 11 o'clock, armed with five documents to be signed, canceling the charges against Seymour, his suspension and prohibiting the board from interfering with him or from trying him.

CONTINUANCE GRANTED.

Attorney Bell immediately objected, saying that he felt it his duty to call to the attention of the court the provision of Section 335 of the Penal Code, by the terms of which an accusation could be filed against persons by information and belief. Judge Smith strenuously objected to reopening the case, and as Bell's authority was based on the appellate court of the Third district, Judge Seawell said he was not bound by it. He, nevertheless, expressed a desire to hear it, and as it was deemed necessary that Attorney Peter Dunne be present, the entire proceedings were set over until 2 o'clock.

Meantime the sweeping judgment of Judge Seawell against the board of police commissioners has not yet become operative because he has not yet signed the judgments.

DECISION WITHHELD.

Superior Judge Seawell withheld his decision of the Seymour case this afternoon after Attorney Bell had submitted to him additional authorities. Two o'clock had been set as the hour for signing the decisions rendered orally yesterday, but after Bell had argued on an opinion by the State supreme court in connection with prosecutions on information and

Hod Carrier Falls Sixty-five Feet, But Receives Only Minor Hurts

Losing his balance as he was about to deposit the load of mortar that he had carried up four stories, James Barry, a hodcarrier employed on the construction of the Oakland (Bankers') Hotel, fell backward from the scaffolding on the Harrison street side of the building, about 11 o'clock this morning, and plunged with a series of somersaults to the sidewalk below, a distance of fully sixty-five feet. The only serious injury he sustained was a fracture of the left wrist. He suffered a number of lacerations and bruises about the head and body, but a careful examination at the Receiving Hospital by Steward Platt showed that he escaped any dangerous injury. This is accounted for by the fact that he fell on a pile of loose sidewalk cement. Had he veered three feet in any direction there is no question but that he would have been killed.

Fellow workmen who saw Barry disappear from the scaffolding were so horror-stricken that strong men as they are they grew sick and had to turn away from their work for support. Several of them recovered their composure sufficiently to rush downstairs, but by the time they reached the ground other workmen had helped Barry to his feet and he was standing holding his injured wrist and telling them all about the fall when they reached his side. The men from above could scarcely believe their eyes, and although Barry protested that he needed no hospital treatment, they insisted upon calling the police ambulance. Into this they literally forced the victim.

Barry was the first to leap from the ambulance at the Receiving Hospital. He went up the front steps with a bound, just to show the others that he was "all right," and when Steward Platt looked him over and reduced the broken wrist Barry insisted upon going to his home at 829 Howard avenue, Piedmont. He is 29 years of age.

Police Investigate Fire That Damages Store

Fire of mysterious origin broke out in a clothing store at Eighth street and Broadway last evening, shortly after 6 o'clock, damaging the stock to the extent of more than $6000 and the building, known as the Blake & Moffitt block, between $1500 and $2000. The blaze was discovered by R. Fickett, an employee of the establishment, as he was closing the store for the night.

The stock, which belonged to Miller, Watt & Co. of Chicago, was in charge of F. P. Kimball, who went through insolvency proceedings a few months ago, assigning the goods to that firm. He stated today that it had been his intention of taking over the stock in a few days.

SLUTHS INVESTIGATE.

Owing to a number of peculiar circumstances connected with the conflagration, Fire Marshal N. A. Ball has put the matter in the hands of Captain of Detectives W. J. Petersen, who this morning stated that he was not ready to give out any statement, as his men who are working on the case had not had sufficient time to collaborate their facts.

The blaze was first discovered in a small room in the rear of the establishment where oil-skin clothing was stored. From there it rapidly gained headway into the main storeroom, and by the time water was obtained and the fire extinguished, sufficient damage had been done to practically ruin the stock. It is believed that the stock was insured by the Chicago concern.

Dr. Charles F. Gladding
Near Death From Poison

Dr. Charles F. Gladding, formerly resident physician at Folsom, while in his rooms at 1212 Grove street, swallowed five grains of morphine, whether by accident or suicidal intent is not known. The police were immediately notified and Wagon Officer Ely was sent down in charge of the patrol wagon to take the man to the receiving hospital. Dr. Gladding resisted him and Ely was forced to send for help. In the meantime Dr. Gladding was removed to the Providence hospital. From the hospital authorities this afternoon is to the effect that there is no immediate danger of death. Nothing is known as to any reason why Dr. Gladding would attempt to end his life.

SUGAR COMBINE IS INTRENCHED ON COAST

pany as to how the other companies conduct their business," he queried.
Atkins replied that he was not informed on the subject. The sugar tariff, according to Atkins, enabled the Pacific Coast sugar refiners to make a larger margin of profit than the Eastern refiners. Replying to Representative Raker of California, Atkins said the price of sugar was the same on the Pacific and the Atlantic coasts; but the Pacific manufacturers are able to sell as far East as Chicago, while the Eastern refiners cannot ship farther West than Kansas City and Omaha.

"The reason is that the Pacific Coast has free raw sugar," said Atkins. "The refiners there get the Hawaiian and Philippine sugars without duty, while we have to pay $1.84 duty on each hundred pounds of Cuban sugar."

"Then sugar ought to be lower on the Pacific Coast?" asked Representative Raker.

"Yes," said Atkins, who added that he knew nothing of the conduct of the far Western companies. He did not know Spreckels, nor what interest the latter had in various beet sugar concerns of the West.

"I have not been able to get any information from any of the companies in which we are largely interested," said Atkins. "We are minority stockholders and they refuse to tell us anything about their business."

Youth Risks Life to Save Sister's Corpse

Drags Coffin Into Street From Burning Parlors of Un-

NEW YORK, June 13. — Michael Murphy, a young clerk, risked his life
last night to save the body of his sister from a fire in an undertaking establish-was buried at Mount Kisco Sunday, coffin containing her body when fire broke through from the basement below. He could have escaped easily through a rear window, but he did not care to leave the body behind. Fighting his way through the fire and smoke, he dragged the coffin through the long hall to the street and deposited it unharmed on the curb.

KING ATTEMDS RACES WITH QUEEN

Thousands Present at Ascot
Heath at Opening of the Coronation Meeting.

Many Americans Are Invited to Be Guests of the British Nobility.

ASCOT HEATH, England, June 13.—
Never has Ascot looked better than on this, the opening day of the coronation meeting. The weather was rather uncertain but not sufficiently so to have any effect on the attendance, which was the greatest in years.

The royal enclosure, club and other stands and the lawns were crowded with fashionably-attired persons, while along the rails about the course hundreds of motor-cars and carriages formed a solid line.

NOBILITY IS THERE.

King George and Queen Mary, with the members of their household party, at Win-dors, came in semi-state to Ascot on Sunday, each drawn by four bays, while three landaus drawn by pairs carried the royal party. Among the occupants of the state carriages were Count Mensdorff-Pouilly, Dietrichstein, the Austro-Hungarian ambassador in London; Count Benckendorff, the Russian ambassador to Great Britain; the Countess Deckerdorff, members of the royal family, the duke of Roxburg and duchess, who was Miss May Goelet of New York, the earl of Granard and the countess, formerly Miss Beatrice Mills of New York.

Among those present today besides the king's Windsor guests were the colonial statesmen, the American ambassador, and many distinguished persons from the over-sea domains.

AMERICANS INVITED.

Americans, who had received invitations, were American Ambassador Reid, Mrs. Reid and the embassy staff with them; John Edgar Hammond, special United States ambassador to the coronation; Mrs. Hammond and their children, W. B. Dodge, Charles P. Taft and Mrs. Taft, H. Roger Winthrop and Mrs. Winthrop, Charles Carroll and Mrs.
Carroll, Clarence Moore and Mrs. Moore,
Frank B. Wiborg and Mrs. Wiborg, Mrs.
John Jacob Astor, Mrs. Joseph Stickney,
Mrs. William B. Leeds, Mrs. Raynal

line Reynolds, J. Ridgely Carter, American minister to Roumania, and Mrs.
Carter; W. Forbes Morgan, Henry Harrison, J. Armstrong Drexel, J. Louis
Webb and Major G. Freington Webb.

There were other American guests in the stands, guests of English friends.

Americans who are entertaining house parties include Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Martin, Waldorf Astor, Mrs. Walter Reynolds, Mrs. F. C. Whitney, Mrs. Carline Reynolds (formerly Mrs. Marshall Field, Jr.) and Mrs. Henry Coventry.
American Ambassador Reid was unable to accept the invitation to be present today as he has not yet recovered from illness. Indisposition but he hopes to be present at the races on Thursday.

PRINCE OF WALES STAKES.

The Prince of Wales stakes brought out a number of derby cracks. This event is of fifty sovereigns each with 1000 sovereigns added, about one mile and five furlongs, and was won by Lord Derby's Stedfast. H. P. Whitney's All gold followed closely. Skeets Martin, the American jockey, having the mount.

The fifty-fourth Ascot biennial stakes of ten sovereigns each with 100 sovereigns added, distance 5 furlongs, was won by J. R. Keene's Cataract.

ADDRESSES DELIVERED

ON EQUAL SUFFRAGE

Before a large gathering of men and women, Mrs. F. C. Turner, a local club-woman, and Francis Wall, an attorney of San Francisco, delivered addresses on woman's suffrage last evening at the Young Men's Christian Association.

President David Starr Jordan of Stanford University was to have been the principal speaker, but owing to an accident to an ambulance he was unable to appear. His place would have been taken by the meeting place in time.

In stating her views on suffrage, Mrs.
Turner said: "The real objection to giving women the ballot arises from tradition and nothing else. Prejudice is founded on tradition and if there were no prejudice we would not have to battle
now for what we consider our right."

Strike Breakers Ousted From

went to the Yosemite on a vacation, a letter was sent to the company making the demands.

In the communication the company was given until last Friday morning to make a satisfactory reply and when it was received in the negative, explaining that it would be an impossibility at present to grant the new scale, the men walked out Saturday morning at 7 o'clock, leaving the Matson steamer Lunline, in from Hawaii, with a cargo of unrefined sugar lying unloaded at the dock.

Determined not to give in to the demands and to carry on the work of the factory either with or without union men, Superintendent Una Hartmann, acting in the absence of Manager Ralph, demanded by the union yesterday employment agencies obtained 200 men to fill the places of the strikers, at the same time hiring a number of Pinkerton men to protect the laborers and property of the company.

The strikebreakers arrived on Sunday and were promised a flat $2.70 a day, a rate which was raised yesterday to $3, being within 15 cents of the amount demanded by the union. Yesterday morning the men went to work on the docks and in the warehouses, but the strikers became so threatening that they were called off shortly afterwards.

EJECTED FROM HOTEL.

Many of the men boarded at the Crockett hotel and through the influence of the union the management ejected them yesterday and they were compelled to seek quarters provided for them by the company in tents set up not far from the hotel.

At present they are practically being held prisoners there while deputy sheriffs and Pinkerton men are doing all they can to avert a clash. In a mix-up yesterday afternoon P. R. Keene was badly beaten by an officer. The strikers have opened quarters opposite the hotel and have stationed pickets throughout the village to work among any possible employees who may drop into town. Sheriff R. B. Yeale of Contra Costa county has a number of deputies here and a close watch is being kept for any movement on the part of either faction.

There are more than 300 employees of the refinery who are continuing their work without interruption and it is believed that they will not be affected by the strike. The International Long-shoremen's union will probably be drawn into this strike before it is settled, however.

In a statement issued late last night by Superintendent Hartmann he said that the company had a sufficient number of men to carry on its work and that it would keep them there all summer rather than submit to the demands of the strikers.

Secretary James Lewis of the union announced that the men would remain firm and that there was no possibility of them receding from the stand for an increase in wages that they had taken.

WORK UNDER WAY.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—At the office of the California-Hawaiian Sugar Refining Co. today the men were stating today that the reports of trouble with striking employees of the refinery at Crockett had been much exaggerated. No serious clash had occurred and none was anticipated. It was said that the men were in the places of those who had walked out, because of a refusal to grant their demands for an advance in wages, have begun work, it is declared, and the operations of the refinery are being conducted as usual.

'BOB' MITCHELL

DIES IN HONDURAS

Fugitive San Francisco Broker Passes Away After an Eventful Career.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—"Bob" Mitchell is dead. The man who was at one time one of California's leading politicians, one of the most successful and popular lawyers in San Francisco, then a prosperous broker with offices in the Palace hotel and a seat on the Chicago Board of Trade, finally a ruined and disgraced refugee, died in Honduras on Sunday, almost in poverty and overwhelmed by a long series of misfortunes. The cablegram announcing his death was received by his son-in-law, Walter H. Sellman, of this city.

Robert Brent Mitchell was born in Maryland about 1851. He came West to practice law in Nevada in the Comstock days and settled at Virginia City. In 1886 he came to San Francisco and took up the practice of law.

He amassed a fortune of $400,000 or more by his ability at the bar, but the stocks fascinated him and he allied himself with brokers until he finally gave up his law practice entirely, and the firm of Mulcahy & Mitchell was formed, with offices in the Palace hotel and a seat on the Chicago Board of Trade.

Countless friends. Mitchell had countless friends. He was a member of the Bohemian club and had many other affiliations, so business came to him easily and the firm prospered. But he persisted in playing the markets himself. Mulcahy objected to this personal speculation and finally withdrew from the firm.

Mitchell then plunged into speculations, and as his money dwindled, he began to "bucket" his sales. He reached the end of his resources December 24, 1905, and two days later the account of his failure and his $200,000 liabilities was made public. His friends realized that he was helpless, penniless and in no position to make up his debts, so he was provided with money and fled to Honduras by way of New Orleans.

KNOWN AS WILSON.

In Honduras he was known as R. A. Wilson and more ill-fatedly as "Pop" Wilson on account of his friendly and genial manner.

He suffered from Bright's disease, and his illness often put a halt to his activities. His youngest daughter, Miss Juliet Mitchell, who was a graduated nurse from the Lane hospital, went to Honduras a year ago to care for him, acquired an illness which developed into brain fever and died three months ago in New Orleans. This, like the death of his wife in 1903, preyed upon Mitchell's mind and served to hasten his end.

CONDEMNATION PLANS OUTLINED BY WOOLNER

City Attorney Tells the Council Steps Necessary to Acquire Peoples Water Co. for Oakland

Plans for the condemnation of the Peoples Water Company properties for an Oakland municipal water supply were received by the city council last night in the form of an outline of procedure from City Attorney Ben F. Woolner. The matter was immediately referred to the special water committee, and action will be taken at the next regular meeting on recommendations to be prepared by the committee in the meantime.

A Sierra-Blue Lakes water supply source was read to the council last night and referred to the same committee. The offer came in the form of a letter from Eugene J. Sullivan, president of the Sierra-Blue Lakes Water & Power Company, and was also referred to the special water committee.

No announcement was made of the third member of the special water committee, and it is inferred from this that more detailed action on the starting of condemnation proceedings may not be taken by the present city council, leaving the working out of the matter to the problem to the next council which goes into office July 1.

It is possible that the formal appointment of the third member of the water committee, or the water commission as it will probably be known, may be left to the next council. If this is not done, the third member will be named only with the formal endorsement of the new commissioners. The municipal water board as it now stands consists of President Ben H. Pendleton of the city council and George W. Dornin, formerly president of the city council and a member of the board of charter framers to draw up the new charter.

The plan of the city to commence condemnation proceedings is outlined by City Attorney Woolner in his formal report to the council. This report, tendered in response to a resolution from the council at a recent meeting asking for the same, was drafted in consultation between City Attorney Woolner and the city's special water counsel, Attorneys R. M. Fitzgerald and Carl M. Abbott.

OUTLINES STEPS.

It outlines the steps to be taken in involving the right of eminent domain, with special reference to the taking of the Peoples Water Company's properties necessary for the supplying and distributing of water to the residents of this city.

City Attorney Woolner advised the council that it is necessary to obtain detailed information as to the descriptions of the properties to be taken, in order that abstracts might be taken and carefully examined to determine the necessary parties to the suit of condemnation. This information is practically in the hands of the city, as City Expert Engineer on Water, J. H. Dockweiler has had access to the books of the company for the past five years, and has detailed information on the holdings of the company. The work of the municipal water board will consist in getting this material into shape for use by the city's attorneys and the council. It is thought that this can be accomplished in a few days.

WOOLNER'S OPINION.

City Attorney Woolner's opinion follows:

To the Honorable, The City Council of the City of Oakland: In accordance with your request for an opinion as to the procedure to be had and taken in the matter of the condemnation of the Peoples Water Company's properties, and for the acquisition of its water supply, etc., for the use of the city of Oakland, I beg leave to report as follows, to-wit:

First—It will be necessary that the council determine the exact properties of the company sought to be condemned, securing accurate descriptions of such properties.

Second—After securing such information, the city council must pass an ordinance declaring such properties necessary for the public use, which ordinance must contain an accurate description of such properties, and a resolution directing the city's attorneys to take the legal steps under the law of eminent domain to condemn the same for such public use.

Third—Before such an action can be commenced abstracts to the properties sought to be condemned must be secured and carefully examined by the city's attorneys to determine the necessary parties to the action.

Yours very truly, BEN F. WOOLNER, City Attorney.

OFFER PROPERTY.

The communication from the Sierra-Blue Lakes Water Company read last night and referred to the municipal water board is as follows:

To the Mayor and Council of the City of Oakland: Gentlemen: I note by the public press that the city of Oakland has under consideration the question of a municipal water supply. We desire to call to the attention of your honorable body the fact that we are the owners of a Sierra water source sufficient to supply the bay cities for years to come with pure water for domestic purposes.

Our company will enter into an engagement to deliver this water in any amount up to 500,000 gallons per day to your city.

In bringing this water to your city, we are willing to be developed for all your municipal uses.

We will gladly furnish your honorable council all the information concerning our properties, and would be pleased to have your committee inspect the same at any time that may suit your convenience.

We guarantee title to be perfect.

Our reports are based upon actual surveys made by most competent engineers.

WOODWORTH'S COMMUNICATION.

The communication from the university savant follows:

"Oakland" City Council: Gentlemen: For several months the city of Berkeley has undertaken a crusade against the Argentine ant under my direction. At the beginning of the work over 200 lots were heavily infested; at the present time no ants exist except in six lots, and there in very reduced numbers.

"The only difficulty lies in the fact that a large colony in Oakland extends to the boundary line between the two cities and we are obtaining continual migration from the Oakland territory. I would like to see the city of Oakland undertake the same sort of work at least in the territory adjacent to Berkeley.

"The presence of the ant greatly diminishes the value of property for residence purposes and our experience in Berkeley has shown that with a very small expenditure of money it is possible to eradicate the insect.

"I would be pleased to discuss this matter personally with the members of your committee, should you wish to have me do so.

Very sincerely yours, (Signed) "C. W. WOODWORTH."

ANTS IN OAKLAND INVADE CLASSIC BERKELEY

Prof. C. W. Woodworth Wants This City to Help Fight the Pest.

LITTLE MONEY WOULD STOP ALL THE TROUBLE

College Town Is Practically Free From the Unbearable Insect.

Traveling colonies of Argentine ants, the most dreaded species of domestic pests, which now occupy 6000 acres in California, have descended upon the residents of this city, according to Professor C. W. Woodworth, head of the department of entomology in the State University. A communication from the noted scientist was received by the City Council last night, explaining the situation and offering the aid of the university experts in ridding the community of the insect.

Professor Woodworth explains in his letter that this imported pest, which has occasioned depredation in residential realty values of more than $5 for cent in districts that have become infested, has traveled across the frontier of Oakland into the confines of classic Berkeley. There the ant was met by a brigade of university savants, and despite a heroic effort to make good its invasion, was swept back and almost eradicated. But the efforts of the scientific ant electors are now proving unsuccessful because the Argentine ant takes up headquarters in Oakland and makes raids across the boundary.

INVASION FROM OAKLAND.

Professor Woodworth complains that Mrs. Irodomyrmex humilis Mayr will not stay at home in Oakland. Berkeley had over 200 lots infested with the presence of the little crawler, and reduced this territory to six lots. But the college "bugologists" have found it impossible to put little ants entirely out of business with the Oakland border, but an imaginary line and the city of Oakland a basis of invasion.

Professor Woodworth gives some startling facts about the little creature held in such great esteem by King Solomon. He declares that Irodomyrmex humilis Mayr surpasses all native species in natural cunningness. He says:

"Whenever the Argentine ant gets established it destroys all other species of ants and becomes more abundant than all other species combined. Unless one uses remedies they become almost unbearable in the kitchen. Commercial value of real estate is reduced, and depredations from ten to twenty per cent. Many cases have come to our attention of people moving out of the infested territory on account of the ants.

A baker who has the territory since worked over by us had to suspend business temporarily, and the butcher found it almost impossible to keep the ants from his ice-chest."

Plans Being Made for Great Convention to Be Held in San Francisco.

A mass meeting of Sunday school workers was held last evening at the First Presbyterian church under the auspices of the Alameda County Bible Class Federation. Gus Schneider, president of the federation, presided and introduced the speaker, W. J. Henderson, J. W. Henderson and G. Schreder Durham and Dr. H. H. Bell.

W. J. Henderson, secretary of the Gileads, described the aims and methods of the $800,000 organized Christian traveling salesmen and the results flowing from the placing of copies of the Scriptures in the hotel rooms throughout the country. J. Schreder Durham of Kentucky, who quit his private business to devote his time to Sunday school work, spoke on the relation of the Sunday school to the church. Durham's address was epigrammatic and forceful. Among other statements he said:

"No class of men is today a higher class than the traveling men and the railroad men.

"The church has made good. The greatest brotherhood in the world is the brotherhood of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

AS TO SALARIES.

"The average street sweeper receives a higher salary than the average preacher. To pay the preacher is the smallest thing a Christian man does, and men do it in the smallest possible way.

"The ministry is the highest calling God gives men. The greatest honor for a man is to be the mother of a preacher of the gospel.

"The center of the kingdom is childhood. The preservation of the child is better than the reformation of the man.

"The greatest tragedy in the history of California is that more than 300,000 boys and girls are outside the Sunday school."

J. W. Henderson, chairman of the Adult Bible class, discussed the California Sunday School Association, spoke briefly respecting the men's parade of Friday, June 23d, urging that Alameda county have 3000 men in line.

Dr. H. H. Bell laid emphasis upon the character of the men who were coming to the international convention, saying that among them were some of the brainiest men in the country, men in mercantile life, in law, medicine and the ministry.

MEETING IN ALAMEDA.

Durham will be the chief speaker at a meeting to be held this evening in Alameda at the First Congregational church, corner Center and Chestnut streets.

A meeting for men only will be held at the First Congregational church, corner Twelfth and Clay streets, this city, Friday evening. Some of the pastors of the east bay cities will tomorrow evening lead their people in special prayer for the convention and will urge the men of their congregations to attend the meeting on Friday and organize for the men's demonstration a week later.

MILITARY TRIBUTE IS PAID TO LATE VETERAN

The funeral of Herman Houser, a prominent Civil war veteran of this city, who died Friday at his home, 1315 Jones avenue, was held yesterday at Evergreen cemetery with military honors, under the auspices of George H. Thomas post, No. 2, G. A. R. Colonel Roberts of that post officiated. The pallbearers were his veteran comrades in George H. Thomas post, and a large number of veterans and friends attended the service. Houser, who was a native of Switzerland, was aged 67 years and 7 months. He had been ill for four years, and died in his sleep. He was one of the first volunteers in the Civil war, having enlisted in the 16th Ohio cavalry, 18th Ohio cavalry and the 3rd United States cavalry.

POLYTECHNIC COLLEGE WILL BE DEDICATED

The dedication exercises of the new Polytechnic College of Engineering building at Thirteenth and Madison streets will be held at the new building Friday evening, June 16. A number of the leading business and professional men of Oakland will be present and deliver short addresses.

The occasion will mark an epoch in the history of the institution, in that the college is being segregated and technical courses in all the practical sciences will hereafter be sustained, and the new building will be dedicated to that purpose. A large number of invitations have been issued for the exercises.

SENATE SAYS 'YES' ON DIRECT VOTE RESOLUTION

Agrees to Amend Constitution to Provide for the Election of Solons by the People

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The Senate last night passed the resolution amending the Constitution to provide for the election of Senators by direct popular vote. The Bristow amendment, giving to the Federal Government supervision of such elections, was adopted, 45 to 41. The Vice-President casting the deciding ballot. The House already has passed the resolution.

Adoption of the Bristow amendment, which omitted the House provision transferring supervision of Senatorial elections from Congress to the State Legislature, was made possible by the action of Arkansas casting the only Democratic vote for the proposition. The tie on that ballot would have been prevented if his vote had been cast with his party, with which he later voted on adoption of the resolution.

On this first ballot five Republicans—Borah, Grenna, La Follette, Poindexter and Work—insurgents, voted against the proposition. On the resolution as amended the vote was six more than the necessary two-thirds majority. Of the twenty-four negative votes eight were cast by Democrats and sixteen by Republicans, as follows: Republicans—Borah, Brandegee, Crane, Dillingham, Gallinger, Hoar, Lippitt, Lodge, Lorimer, Oliver, Page, Penrose, Richardson, Root, Smoot and Wetmore.

Democrats—Bacon, Bankhead, Fletcher, Foster, Johnston, Percy, Terrell and Williams.

The resolution, as amended and passed, follows:

"That in lieu of the first paragraph of section 3 of article 1 of the Constitution the Constitution of the United States, and in lieu of so much of paragraph 2 of the same section as relates to the filling of vacancies, the following be proposed as an amendment to the Constitution, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes on the part of the Constitution when ratified by the Legislatures of three-fourths of the States:

"The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, elected by the people thereof, for six years; and each Senator shall have one vote. The electors in each State shall have the qualification requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the State Legislature.

"When vacancies happen in the representation of any State in the Senate, the executive authority of such State shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies: Provided, that the Legislature of any State may empower the executive thereof to make temporary appointments until the people fill the vacancies by election as the Legislature may direct.

"This amendment shall not be construed as to effect the election or term of any Senator chosen before it becomes valid as part of the Constitution.

The amended resolution now will go into conference between the Senate and House, and some Senators predict that the House will refuse to accept it.

BANK CLERKS WIN ON PISTOL RANGE

Five Secure Medals After Practicing at Targets On Roof of Building.

The pistol and revolver range on the roof of the Oakland Bank of Savings and the clerks and tellers of the latter institution, who use the range in order to become proficient marksmen, are accomplishing results.

Five of the attaches of the bank have become medalists in competitive pistol and revolver matches with clubs throughout the country and, in a few days, will be displaying the trophies to their friends.

They are Frank Cerini, H. A. Harris, Rollo Hough, Jack Davidson and E. A. Pierre. The substitutes for these, also attaches of the bank, are Dave Bulmore, Dave Calk, George Preston, H. A. Merrill and G. T. Mahoney.

The clerks have formed the Oakland Bank of Savings Pistol and Revolver Club with a membership of thirty. This organization is affiliated with the United States Revolver Association, International League. The headquarters of the association is in Springfield, Mass. The other local organizations of this character are the Oakland Revolver Club and the Shellmound Revolver Club.

The clubs in the association, for the past fourteen weeks, have been competing and sending their several scores to the headquarters of the association, which awards the medals. Twenty-four matches have been shot, each match consisting of five targets, five shots for each of five of the best marksmen of each organization.

This is the first time the local bank team has taken part in a competition of the kind and it is needless to say that its members are gratified over the results.

TWITTED WIFE ABOUT HER AGE

So Mrs. Mathilda Nye Promptly Gets a Divorce Decree.

Mathilda Nye obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce in the superior court late yesterday afternoon from Shubael Nye, for the principal reason that despite the fact that she was only a year older than her husband, he taunted her of it constantly. To him, Mrs. Nye testified, she was an old woman, and he never allowed an opportunity to pass to tell her so.

"My husband preferred the society of younger people," testified Mrs. Nye, "and he left me alone nights for a livelier time with them. He even went so far as to refuse to introduce me to his friends because in his opinion, I was too old to know and associate with them."

TO STOP RACES ON DIRT TRACKS

Motor Club Decides That the Contests Are Too Dangerous to Drivers.

CHICAGO, June 13.—A decision by the Chicago Motor Club to prohibit automobile racing on dirt tracks followed an investigation by the coroner's jury into the cause which led to the death of Marcel Bastie, who was killed on Saturday at Hawthorne track.

While the testimony of a dozen witnesses at the inquest developed the fact that Bastie's death was due to inexperience in handling a machine of too narrow a tread on the dirt track, and not to any carelessness on the part of those in charge of the meet, was decided the sure way of preventing similar accidents would be to refuse sanction to any more dirt track meets.

BURGLARS LEAVE BANK AND JIMMY

Find Nothing of Value in Home So Leave Something There.

Burglars found nothing in the residence of W. P. Rixson, 857½ Harrison street when they entered the place by forcing a window and on leaving the place after making a search left a savings money bank for the family. The bank was marked "The Nippon Savings Bank of Sacramento," No. 1268, and is thought to have been taken by the burglars on one of their former raids. Besides the small metal bank was found a long iron jimmy, also left by the burglars.

Two shoplifters entered the store of Collins brothers at Fourteenth and Washington streets last evening and while on was pricing some goods the other stole ivory toilet articles valued at $10. The theft was reported to the police this morning.

While attending the cherry carnival at San Leandro Saturday evening Mrs. C. Billington of 99 Hamilton place was robbed by pickpockets of a gold watch and fob valued at $20.

International Seamen To Strike Tomorrow

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., June 13.—The long threatened strike of the international seamen's union has been definitely fixed to commence tomorrow.

The Olympic of the White Star line, which expects to sail tomorrow, is coaling with imported labor.

SUPPLY AND DEMAND CONTROL LUMBER PRICE

KANSAS CITY, June 13.—That the cost of producing yellow pine lumber increased 88 per cent from 1899 to 1906, and that supply and demand and not the "blue book," or price list, issued by the Yellow Pine Manufacturers' Association, controlled the price was the assertion of Charles S. Keith, president of the Central Coal and Coke Co., of this city on the witness stand today at the hearing of the state's ouster suit against the alleged "lumber trust."

State Mineralogist Lewis E. Aubury has sent the following letter to every chamber of commerce, board of trade and promoter committee in California:

"The state mining bureau is engaged in the annual collection of statistics regarding the mineral production of California in 1910. We need hardly point out that it is highly desirable that each and every part of California shall be fully represented in the published reports that will go out to all parts of the world in a few months. To make certain that no mineral industry in your vicinity is deprived of opportunity to add its total to the production of your county, as it will be published, we ask your cooperation in furnishing the names of all firms and individuals (with their postoffice addresses) who are engaged in your neighborhood in mining, quarrying, the production of petroleum, of gems, of materials employed in structural works, of minerals employed in structural works, of mineral nature."

MUNYON, APOSTLE OF HOPE, COMING

Friends Plan Ovation for Noted Health Authority On His Arrival.

Comes Here to Form Vast Cult Among His Many Followers.

Prof. James M. Munyon, noted Eastern health expert and founder of the famous "Munyon Hope Cult," will arrive in Oakland today on the Overland Limited, and his many friends and followers in San Francisco are planning to give him an ovation on his arrival on the Overland Limited at the Oakland pier.

Munyon comes to San Francisco fresh from an overturning of popular prejudices in medical matters in the East. Munyon's favorite saying is that "there is more curative power in an ounce of hope than in tons of 'dope' and he has been preaching and practicing this doctrine in the big cities of the East" with remarkable success. The avowed purpose of Munyon's visit to the bay cities is the formation of a vast "Hope Cult" from among the believers in his theories, and so that he may meet personally the many thousands of persons who have been taking his remedies for years as practically their only family physician.

THE STRAIGHT AND NARROW PATH

A political cartoon by P. Macaulay. It depicts a man in a top hat and a long, checkered suit walking away from the viewer down a path. The man's top hat has the words "BIG BUSINESS" written on its band. To his left, a wooden signpost stands with a sign that reads "SHERMAN ANTI-TRUST LAW". The man is carrying a cane in his right hand and a suitcase in his left. The path he is walking on leads away from the sign and towards a distant, hazy horizon. The background is filled with stylized, hazy clouds. The artist's signature, "P. Macaulay", is visible in the bottom right corner.

With another school year concluded, a sober thought naturally arises as to the trend of education of today.

Conditions have changed materially in a decade. They are changing with each year. Teachers today are educated to a point that is without precedent in the more erudite pedagogues.

The Nation is awakening to the fact that better financial inducements must be offered to instructors in order to attract the most talented men and women of the country to this great work.

The classics are giving way, in substantial measure, to studies conducing to a finished business education. The youth who steps from the school portals of this will know more of business affairs, their reason and logic, than did many a clerk of long experience in other years.

Manual training is educating the children to dexterity from the kindergarten age. From the first day the tot enters school the aim is to teach him to use his fingers no less nimbly and effectively than his brain.

With such an end in view it is natural that studies formerly cherished under the term of "classical" should give way. The child cannot do all things.

Whither, therefore, is this new movement tending? Will the little one fail to obtain a grasp on those fundamentals of language, of history, and of culture that exponents of the old style claim for their system?

While elements of modern systems immediately will deny such imputation to righteous indignation, there is another side the warrants consideration, if only from motives of love and respect.

Forced study of ancient languages made many an unwilling student acquainted with the vast governmental problems of Greece and Rome, all of which have their counterpart in modern times.

Persual of ancient history has given to later days valuable lessons on what to foster and what to extirpate in economic affairs. No better illustration of this could be asked than the frequent references found, in the debates of the men who founded this Union, to Roman and Grecian historical events.

However, the tendency of the times is to build for today and tomorrow. Under the circumstances, it is logical to equip the child to fit him for his life struggle in the dominating world of business. Certainly, no more helpless creature than the classical scholar of a few generations back could be imagined in these bustling times.

All in all, there is no question that the system of today is meeting the need of the hour and meeting it well. It safely may be left to the good sense of the teachers to modify and change conditions when such action becomes necessary.—Seattle Times.

Ceylon, only about one-half as large as New York state, is now exporting nearly as much tea as China sells abroad. China grows more than three times as much tea as Ceylon, but the Chinese learned ages ago to love the fortifying cup, and their tea crop, they think, is nearly as important as rice or wheat. They consume most of their tea at home. The people of Ceylon are not fopid of the beverage and are content to raise the leaf for nations that want it. Practically the whole crop is exported.

Every continent has tried to raise tea, but it is now doubted that the plant will thrive anywhere outside of Asia and a few of its islands. Perhaps Natal, South Africa, is an exception, for tea growing seems to be fairly successful there. On the whole, however, no varieties of the tea plant thrive outside the continent where they originated.

Sixty years ago the French tried to introduce the plant into their country and Corsica. The results were discouraging. Then they thought they might raise their own tea in Algiers, but an experiment failed. In all other European countries where tea culture has been attempted the leaf does not mature well and production is too small to be worth the trouble. All talk of raising tea in this country has amounted to very little and the attempt to grow it in Brazil, while not so completely futile, is still very far from making an important industry in South America.

There is little doubt that the plant originated in China, where it is still found in the northern provinces in its wild state. It is not exactly known how much tea is produced and consumed by this business. A French statistical publication says that about 3,000,000 acres are planted in tea in China, that the yield is about 700,000,000 pounds a year, and that about 600,000,000 pounds are retained for home consumption, the rest being exported.—New York Sun.

CALLS RECIPROCITY BILL DIPLOMATIC BARGAIN

La Follette Expresses Adverse View on President's Pet Measure.

BRANDS IT TARIFF TRADE MASQUERADING

Declares It Will Make Scapegoat of the United States Farmer.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Senator La Follette in an individual report expressed adverse views on the reciprocity bill. He said it was perfectly consistent for one who believed in free trade to support the bill, but that no man who believed either in a tariff for revenue only or in a protective tariff could consistently give it his support.

"In the belief that duties should represent the difference in the cost of production at home and abroad, with others I contend," said he, "that the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill was pending for reduction in duties to that level in so far as the information then at hand furnished any safe criterion to determine rates on that principle."

"I believe in reciprocity with Canada. The mutual government and tariff concessions between our country and our world neighbors along the lines laid down by Blaine and McKinley is a policy that has in view the best welfare of all concerned."

PROTESTS MANDATE.

"But I protest against this proposed revision of our tariff by executive mandate. I protest against this diplomatic bargain that is masquerading in the guise of reciprocity. It is not reciprocity. It is a tariff trade, conceived in self support, selfish, negotiated in secret and brought into the open with the attractive label of reciprocity as a bid for the favor of the American public."

"This agreement is not in interest of the consumer. Relief from the high cost of living is not to be found in such a tariff compact as that represented in the pending bill."

"It is not necessary to wrong any class or do injustice to any interest in order to benefit the consumers."

SCAPEGOAT OF FARMERS.

"And it is scarcely less than criminal to make a scapegoat of the farmers for the benefit of any unlawful combination. It is not the farmer, it is not the consumer, for whom these negotiations were made. It was made to benefit the railroad, the miller, the packer, the newspaper publisher."

"The newspaper publishers are promised a free market for print paper; for which they expend about $55,000,000 annually. No one who investigated the conditions underlying the newspaper of this country have been compelled to purchase their supply of print paper can escape the conclusion that the publishers have been subjected to extortion. The conditions under which the publishers are forced to purchase their paper are intolerable. The conditions call for action which will afford immediate relief. The gross injustice of the proposed bill impels me to oppose it. If I am offered amendments providing for a complete revision of the wool and cotton schedules of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, revision of the rates on structural iron and steel and certain other paragraphs of that schedule; also amendment revising the sugar schedule. Such revision downward, while reducing our government revenues less than $10,000,000 annually, will effect a reduction in the cost of living by lowering prices to the consumer aggregating more than $200,000,000 a year."

BETTER THAN NOTHING.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Senator John Sharp Williams of Mississippi declares that when he wants a thing he wants it, but he will not refuse to kill a rattlesnake because at the same time he cannot kill an anaconda. This in brief, is reciprocity trade, as set forth in a report on the reciprocity bill filed in the senate today when Senator Penrose, chairman of the committee on finance, reached that measure.

"When I want two things, I want both, but I cannot get both, then I want the one I can get," Williams said. "Not only is it true that I would, as original propositions, favor most of the amendments offered, but I could easily write down several hundred others that I would like to put on the statute books, reducing the burden of taxation on the people. But I see no particular in refusing to shoot a rattlesnake because I cannot at the same time shoot an anaconda. This is especially true if the anaconda is not within effective gun range."

Williams' report was one of a number presenting various views on the reciprocity bill. The majority report was non-committal, neither for or against. Senators Williams, Stone and Kern united in urging the acceptance of the bill without amendment while Senators La Follette and McCumber presented reports in opposition to the measure.

BILL ON STORMY PASSAGE.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The introduction of the reciprocity bill was delayed today when an unexpected lengthy debate was started on a protest of Senator Bacon against the vote of Vice-President Sherman the last night broke a tie and adopted the Bristow amendment to the resolution providing for direct election of senators.

Canadian reciprocity was launched in the senate late today when what promises to be a stormy voyage. Chairman Penrose of the finance committee, with Senators Lodge and Bailey explained that recommendation was impossible because of a committee deadlock. Senators McCumber, La Follette and Williams, members of the committee, presented their views.

Star-Spangled Banner.

BADE SPEAKS.

Professor William Frederick Bade, of the Pacific Theological Seminary, in addressing the graduates, said:

"The test of ideas is now to be displaced, in your experience, by the test of ideas in real life. The things that are in life while life is real, to be what you ought to be; second, to count for what you can, and third, to enjoy what you may."

"Briefly these things are character, influence and happiness."

"Striving for material riches without aiming to secure good moral character, or losing a good moral character in the endeavor to be wealthy, is not only not worth while, but defeats the real aim in life. Striving for material comfort and riches is not to be condemned, if made subservient to striving for character. The material aim should not be made an end in itself."

"To be influential is a legitimate desire. Influence is likely to become potent for good in a community."

STRIVING IS FUNDAMENTAL.

"Striving for happiness is fundamental in human nature. The capacity for happiness and suffering stand in direct relation to the nobility of one's purpose and aim in life. Advancing civilization is marked by the change of the struggle for existence into the struggle for happiness, the desire to possess other things than material comforts."

An interesting public feature of commencement day was the exhibition in the library of the first work ever done in the school by blind pupils, consisting of Indian basketry and cookery by the girls and story and basketry by the boys. This department of blind training was never attempted until last October. All the furniture used by the institution is made by deaf boys, and the blind boys are also beginning to be adept in similar work.

The large assembly hall of the institution was elaborately decorated for the exercises this afternoon.

CONFIDENCE IN KEITH.

The commencement number of the Stylus, published by the blind pupils, came from the press today, and is dedicated to Principal Douglas Keith, in the following words:

"On the resignation of Dr. Warring W. Wilkinson a year ago last October, Mr. Douglas Keith was made superintendent of this school. For many years he has held a position in the institution, and has always been known to take a marked interest in the welfare of the pupils. Before assuming his duties as principal, Mr. Keith took a trip east to visit the different institutions of this kind there, so as to learn of every improvement and addition that might go to forward the progress of this school. He returned with many valuable suggestions, and during the short time he has been principal the school has been much improved. The different departments have been reorganized, those which were deficient being made more perfect. A course in manual training, which we have long wished for, was this term introduced; and many minor, though to us very beneficial improvements and additions have been made under his direction."

"Mr. Keith is putting forth every effort to raise the standard of the school, and we feel sure that his efficient supervision the time will come when it will be a model of its kind. His congenial attitude toward us, his kind and sympathetic interest in our cause, have made us feel that in Mr. Keith we not only have an excellent principal, but a staunch friend; and he has won our admiration and respect."

E. G. LEWIS IS SUED FOR DEBT

Attempt Made to Have Receiver Named for University City Property.

ST. LOUIS, June 13.—A receiver for all of the properties of E. G. Lewis, at University City, Mo., an injunction restraining the representatives of the syndicate of magazine publishers from exercising authority under the court agreement taking over the properties, and a foreclosure on all improved property of the University Heights Realty & Development Company, are sought by two suits filed today in the United States district court. The properties are valued at between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000, it is said.

The suit for a receiver was filed by 23 creditors. It is directed against E. G. Lewis, the Lewis Publishing Company, the University Heights Realty & Development Company, People's Saving Trust Company and others.

The suit seeking to foreclose on the improved property was filed by seven plaintiffs.

It is represented in the creditors' petitions that all of the Lewis corporations are insolvent and that their aggregate indebtedness amounts to more than $5,000,000.

It is charged that the reorganization plan of the syndicate of publishers is a scheme further to deprive the creditors of the corporations of their money. The agreement was adopted recently to continue for five years, a committee representing 108 magazine publishers took charge of Lewis' properties to handle them for five years, then to be returned to Lewis free of debt. The plan was adopted to save the drawing of the valuable properties on the market at a forced sale.

LEACH TO HEAD FAIR COMMISSION

County Board Appoints Well Known Oaklander as the President.

F. A. Leach Jr. was chosen vice-president of the Alameda County Exposition Commission at a meeting of that body yesterday. Leach was appointed to the commission by the Board of Supervisors recently in place of B. P. Miller.

It was decided that the commission should make extensive exhibits throughout the county, including the land shows at New York, Chicago and Omaha next fall. The next step will be to raise sufficient money.

The plan of the Western Development Association whereby an exhibit train, representing the Western States in the league, will be established to tour the country for the exposition, came in for considerable discussion.

The plan now awaits the approval of several railroads, which have been requested to bear a part of the expenses. Should the scheme be carried out Alameda county will be well represented.

FEDERATED CLUBS TO TALK ROADS

Improvers Will Take Up the Question of New State Highway.

A letter of thanks from the Federated Improvement Club of Alameda County to the Chamber of Commerce for the offer of the chamber's committee rooms for headquarters was read at the directors' meeting of the latter body this morning.

The fact that the federated body will discuss the State appropriation for the improvement of highways at its next meeting was mentioned by A. A. Denison and it is more than likely that the chamber will also take up the matter. At a recent session of the legislature $18,000,000 was set aside for the extending and improvement of thoroughfares in the State and it is to draw upon this fund for the benefit of Alameda county that the improvement clubs will take some action.

The playground movement in Oakland has the hearty support of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and a letter has been received by the local chamber from W. H. Booth, president of the southern organization, congratulating Oakland on the enterprise shown in that direction.

GOOD PROGRAM OF ATHLETIC EVENTS

Many Prominent Sprinters To Take Part in Butchers' Day Events.

An interesting program of athletic events is scheduled to take place at the Butchers' picnic which will be held at Shellmound park tomorrow. The meet has been sanctioned by the Pacific Athletic Association and a large number of entries have been received.

In the 176-yard scratch race a number of fast sprinters have sent in their names and some close races should result in the various heats. As the track is circular and is unsuited for a big field in a short distance, the entries have been divided into numerous heats in this event so that not more than four or five runners will be in each.

PROMINENT ATHLETES.

Among the runners who will take part in this race are Campbell, Macaulay, Snider and Gerhardt of the Olympic club, Gates of the Sacramento Athletic club, Koenigsch of the Pastimes and Martin, the St. Mary's college runner.

The half-mile promises to be a good race as the handicaps have been nicely arranged. Gates, Campbell and Macaulay have been placed on the scratch mark and if these men can get through the field a close race should be assured. In the quarter-mile Campbell and Macaulay are again at scratch. Another good race should take place in the 352 yards, two laps, which has received a big entry. This will be run in heats.

HORINE AND SNEDIGAR.

Horine, the Stanford high jumper, who has cleared 6 feet 4 inches this spring, will give a try at the handicap to a number of good performers in the high jump. In the broad jump Ole Snedigar is at scratch and Baumgaeh, who won several events at the Knights of the Red Branch games, is also entered.

The athletic events will begin at 1:30 o'clock and the program consists of the following events:

176 yards, scratch; 352 yards, handicap; 440 yards, handicap; half-mile, handicap; one mile, handicap; running high jump and running broad jump.

EMERYVILLE MAN AMONG MISSING

Sisters of Philip Becker Fear That He May Be a Suicide.

Philip Becker, a former employee at the racetrack in Emeryville, and living at 1330 Park avenue, that place, has been missing from his home since last Wednesday morning. He had been ill with nervous prostration for about a year, and his sisters, with whom he lived, fear he may have been injured or made way with himself.

The missing man left his home early Wednesday morning before any one was up, and so far as is known no one has seen him since. He has a record of making way with himself, his family say, but his health is so completely broken that he may have done so. It has been nearly a year since his health has permitted him to work, his last place of employment having been a watchman at the racetrack in Emeryville, where he was well known.

The description of the missing man is as follows: Forty-seven years old; 5 feet 7 1/2 inches in height; weight, about 140 pounds. The man has black hair, slightly tinged with gray; a partially bald head; and a black mustache; dark brown eyes; and when last seen was wearing a dark coat, black derby hat, gray striped trousers and gaiters with elastic sidepieces. He was very nervous in actions and was of a thin build and of a quiet and retiring disposition. He had no money with him when he left home.

JAPANESE BELL- HOP A PROFESSOR

Head of Department in University of Kyoto Works in Hotel.

BOSTON, June 13.—A good looking, quiet mannered Japanese who usually sat on the end of the bellboy's bench, waiting for call of "front" in a Boston hotel, will carry bags for guests no longer. It became known today that he sailed on the Romatic Saturday on his return to Japan, where he will be known as Professor Yoshino Tanikwa, head of the department of philosophy in the University of Kyoto.

Yoshino, as he was known to the patrons of the hotel, received the degree of master of arts from Harvard University last year, after a year in the graduate school, having previously received his bachelor's degree at an educational institution in Minneapolis, Minn.

The young Japanese has refused to tell why he became a bellboy. When asked whether it was on account of the money he earned or the chance it gave him to study practical philosophy, he merely smiled.

Professor Hanikwa, who in addition to being a student and bellboy, has also been a special commissioner of the Japanese Buddhist Charitable Association, occupied a first-cabin stateroom on the Romatic. He will return to Japan by easy stages, visiting the more important of the charitable institutions of the larger European countries.

POSTAL PLANS INVASION OF TELEPHONE FIELD

NEW YORK, June 13.—Announcement is made at the executive offices of the Postal Telegraph Company that it is to enter the field in competition with the Bell Telephone and Western Union. As a result of successful experiments that have just been completed between Salt Lake City and Reno and between Reno and San Francisco, its trunk telegraph lines are to be used for telephone messages between those cities.

The Postal has put into operation between Salt Lake City and San Francisco two new lines which cost $2,000,000. The wires are thicker than a lead pencil and weigh 315 pounds to the mile. This new wire is eventually to supplant the lighter size on all trunk lines of the Postal system, and as its mileage is increased the Postal's operation in the telephone field is to extend.

When the telephone experiments were made, the wires were being used for the duplex transmission of telegraphic messages between Chicago and San Francisco, and at the same time men in Salt Lake City and in San Francisco were in telephone conversation with Reno. Voices were carried 400 miles.

TELEPHONE COMPANY TO REDUCE RATES

BOSTON, June 13.—The New England Telephone and Telegraph Company is about to inaugurate a sweeping reduction in rates to take effect during the coming summer and fall. This action follows a series of reductions made in the Boston suburban district by the state authorities, by which the telephone company's annual revenue was reduced between $500,000 and $400,000. The company officials believe that the reductions announced today, which it is estimated will take from its revenue $200,000 additional, will not mean any permanent loss, as they are expected to create a largely increased volume of business.

WIFE'S WAGE IS HUSBAND'S COIN

State Law Declares Woman's Earnings Is Community Property.

LOS ANGELES, June 13.—If a California wife is able to work and earn wages, she cannot obtain a divorce on the ground of non-support; on the contrary the money that she earns is community property and belongs in part to the husband. Thus Superior Judge Monroe ruled in denying Maud Falham's application for a decree.

Mrs. Falham said that her husband had not contributed to her support in the last year. During that time she earned a living by working in a cafe. "And you have during that time of this year lived with your husband?" the court asked.

"Yes."

"Then you will have to show other cause for a decree. The law of California, though it may be hard, is that the money that she earns money it becomes community property. Such money is as much her husband's as her own. Thus he, in law, supports her with what she herself earns and the claim of non-support fails."

COMMISSIONER TO WED.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Interstate Commerce Commissioner, Edward E. Clarke will be married June 28 to Miss Agnes Barnes of Selma, Ala., a census bureau employee.

SAVING TIME by TELEPHONE

WHEN a man feels the necessity of being in two places at the same time he goes to the nearest telephone and sends his voice.

It is not exactly the same thing, but when a man talks hundreds of miles in opposite directions from the same Bell Telephone, it is about as good.

In the daily use of the Telephone a man travels all over town by wire in a few minutes. It is just as easy to travel all over the State and other States by means of the universal Long Distance Service of the Bell System.

OAKLAND TRIBUNE FREE BEAUTY COUPON

Good tomorrow for this World's Most Famous Beauty Specialist

An opportunity is now offered every reader of this paper to consult the world's most famous beauty specialist, Harriett Meta, of Paris, London and Syracuse, absolutely free.

A little over three years ago there was nothing known which, in our judgment, would actually remove wrinkles, but at that time Harriett Meta made the important discovery which has since made her famous in two continents.

She demonstrated the great power of her new process by taking her own wrinkles out with it in three nights, after face massage, masks, straps, steaming pots, etc., had all failed, and today Harriett Meta's face is still free from wrinkles, her cheeks full and plump and her skin and complexion is a delight to behold. In fact, by many she is considered the most beautiful woman in all Paris.

Her remarkable discovery was brought before the judges of the Paris International Exposition and the Home Exposition Internationale for their investigation, and in both instances they quickly awarded her gold medals thereon. The French government also honored her with a patent on her new process, and patents are now pending before the U. S. government at Washington.

London journals sent their Beauty Editors to investigate her methods, and their high commendations of her discoveries made her famous almost overnight, so that she was eagerly sought after by the French courtesses and English ladies of high title and rank. The Beauty Editor of the London Observer wrote: "An interview with Harriett Meta left me persuaded that here at last might be found the secret to restore youth and beauty."

Many of those who have used her process report most astonishing results. Mrs. Mary J. Davis, of 24 So. Fourth street, East St. Louis, Ill., says: "My wrinkles were very deep and long standing, so you can imagine my surprise when, after only two applications, they entirely disappeared." Mrs. L. H. Haskell of San Francisco, Calif., writes: "I am 50 years old. Consequently my wrinkles were of long standing and I had not thought it possible to erase them, but now, when I view my changed reflection in the mirror, I can scarcely realize the transformation that has been wrought." Mrs. M. A. Edwards of Raleigh, N. C., says: "Since using the treatment I look younger than I did 25 years ago." Mrs. M. L. Lee, 221 East Virginia street, Evansville, Ind., writes: "I used the treatment one night and it succeeded in entirely removing my wrinkles, leaving my face as soft and free from lines as a child's." Miss Henrietta Jackson of 6 Melville bldg., Pittsfield, Mass., says: "Your treatment is a Godsend to womankind. I wish every woman could know as I know the wonderful results which are produced by your treatment."

Since Harriett Meta made her remarkable discovery, thousands have naturally sprung up all over the country. Some of them have copied Harriett Meta's advertisements and literature to such an extent that the public is often at a loss to distinguish the imitation from the real. We are therefore authorized to announce the following remarkable offer, which cannot fail to convince you as to who is who.

Harriett Meta will forfeit $1000 in gold if she fails to prove that she holds nine Gold Medals and three Grand Prix on her discoveries from International Expositions. She will forfeit $1000 in gold if anyone can prove that she did not take out her own wrinkles with it in three nights exactly as she claims. She will forfeit $1000 in gold if every newspaper and magazine in the United States or Europe prior to the publication of her advertisements.

Arrangements have been made with Harriett Meta to furnish free information in regard to her marvelous process for removing wrinkles to all OAKLAND TRIBUNE readers. Merely call out and send her the coupon below and you will receive free particulars by return mail in a plain sealed envelope. You can use this information in the privacy of your own home without the knowledge of even your most intimate friends. It often works astonishing wonders in a single treatment overnight.

NEGROES REPLY TO REAL ESTATE MEN

Afro-Americans Resent Being Termed Africans and Classed With Aliens.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: We read an item stating that the realty men of Berkeley had made a protest against selling land or property to Africans. We do not know of any Africans in Berkeley. If anyone has sold land to Africans will they kindly inform us who they are and where they are located? We are very desirous of finding their location. 126 years ago, several Afro-American families who have purchased homes in several parts of Berkeley.

In reading the article we also noticed that we are classed as aliens with the Chinese and Japanese. Webster defines an alien as a foreigner—a foreigner not naturalized. Will the realty men inform us how they define an alien? Is there a decade in the history of America or a spot on its surface which has not been hallowed by the black man's blood? Has the East ever called when he did not answer? It was Christopher Attuck who was the first to lay down his life in the battle of Independence. 126 years ago, Has the South ever called when he did not answer? Was he not with Jackson in New Orleans? Did he not there pile up the cotton bales to protect the Americans from British lead?

Has the North ever called when he did not answer? Although he would not follow Nat Turner, although he spurned the entreaties of John Brown to rise up and play innocent woman and children, still, when he had a legal opportunity he marched forward 200,000 strong beneath the stars and stripes for his freedom and the perpetuation of the Union.

Has the whole world ever called when he did not answer? It was the Tenth Cavalry, under gallant Wheeler, which planted the American standard on the heights of San Juan. True through it all, brave through it all, As the great Tausaint L'Ouveture, who whipped the best soldiers of the world and gained the freedom of his people and the independence of his beloved land, what else is needed to establish the negro's title to participate in the rights and homes of this great country? He never proved false to his country. He never struck his country a blow. He has honored her flag. What else must he do to be recognized as a citizen? In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth, and gave each nation his portion. To the Africans Africa, to the Europeans Europe, Asia to the Asiatics, America to the red men or Indians. So to us that explains who the aliens of America are. We close with love to all and malice towards none. The Missionary Club, 2411 Telegraph avenue.

If you have money to invest, read this

Six per cent. interest, which we pay upon our certificates, is, in our opinion, the highest rate compatible with safety and yet it is no higher than is due the investor, whose funds make possible the successful growth of every similar corporation throughout the United States.

The reason that 6% can be paid with safety by The Realty Syndicate is because of the nature and the magnitude of the Company's operations.

In the first place, the management of the Corporation is in the hands of its officers, who give their personal attention to its affairs and with whom you deal directly.

They are men of standing, with a knowledge of realty values and the capital and energy necessary to put this knowledge to practical use—as is fully demonstrated by the history of the success of the Company during the past 16 years.

From the very nature of The Realty Syndicate's business—the buying, holding and developing of Oakland and Alameda County real estate) it is obvious that the possibilities of the Company are confined only to the amount of capital available for the purchase and improvement of properties.

This continued opportunity for the safe employment of capital has prompted our various certificate offers.

We wish it distinctly understood, however, in the solicitation of your investment, that this additional money is to be used exactly as we have so successfully used money in the past, in the development and building up of properties already owned by us, or in the purchase of new land of equal merit and that we pledge our entire present assets (of over fourteen million dollars) as security in addition to whatever added assets new capital may make it possible for us to acquire.

If you have money to invest at 6%, under such circumstances, we shall be pleased to correspond with you in relation to the matter and to give you full information regarding our financial standing. You deal directly with the principals, who are responsible, established, successful people, comprising a great institution—The Realty Syndicate.

HEART--TRIBUNE'S PAGE FOR WOMEN--HOME

MRS. Charles Leonard Smith, who, with her husband, will leave for the East and Europe next week, is being entertained at many delightful affairs in this city and Berkeley, where she has many friends.

One of the prettiest affairs given so far in her honor was a luncheon over which Mrs. A. C. Posey presided at her artistic Vernon street home. The decorations and favors were especially unique. The place cards were steamships floating in the water glasses, the hulls being cunningly designed of cork; while the dessert was in the shape of ice cream molds of locomotives and trolley car designs of remarkably intricate and perfect workmanship.

A profusion of yellow iris was used in the decorative scheme. A score of matrons enjoyed the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will sail for Europe on June 28. They will visit London, Paris, The Hague and Amsterdam, and will then journey up the Rhine. They will spend considerable time in Rome.

They will be gone at least three months. Steamer letters and travelers' gifts are pouring in on them from their wide circle of friends.

ALLEGED SIREN IS SUED FOR $50,000

Mrs. Gliddon Wants Golden Balm From Mrs. Gladys L. Woodward.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Trial of the suit instituted by Mrs. Jean L. Mackey Gliddon of Los Angeles against Mrs. Gladys Lambertson Woodward of this city began late yesterday in the United States circuit court. Mrs. Gliddon asks $50,000 damages, alleging the alienation of the affections of her husband, De Putron Gliddon.

The Gliddons were married on February 24, 1894, and lived together until the summer of 1908, when Gliddon, at Monterey, Cal., met Mrs. Woodward, then Mrs. Gladys Lambertson, who had received some $100,000 from John Bryson, a Los Angeles capitalist.

Mrs. Gliddon in the summer of 1908 was called to Mount Carroll, Ill., by the serious illness of her mother, and during her absence her husband made a trip to Monterey, telling of the meeting between Gliddon and Mrs. Lambertson, the wife in her complaint says: "While at Monterey the defendant commenced by arts and wiles to attract my husband's attention, and leaving there they went together to San Jose and Oakland, Cal., Portland, Or., and Seattle."

TELLS OF TRIP.

The complaint also charges that since Gliddon and Mrs. Woodward became acquainted the former has refused to return and live with his wife. It also tells of trips made by them to other points on the Pacific coast and of a journey they made to the Far East.

Before her meeting with Gliddon, Mrs. Lambertson had been for seventeen years the nurse and companion of John Bryson. They traveled together to the Orient and just before his death Bryson bequeathed to Mrs. Lambertson the bulk of his estate. The Bryson will was also contested by his relatives, but the courts sustained Mrs. Lambertson's claims.

In February, 1910, Mrs. Lambertson, it is understood, was introduced to her present husband, Walter Ayres Woodward, by Mrs. "Jack" Riggs, the wife of the grocer. After a courtship of two days, Mrs. Lambertson married Woodward, who was 22 years old, and a bank clerk of Rochester, N. Y.

Praises Coast

NEW YORK, June 13.—After weeks in the west, including all the cities of the Pacific coast, Mary Garden returned yesterday to this city and said she had enjoyed her trip. She described her trip as the most wonderful experience of her life except being in love.

She said: "The only thing the matter with New York is San Francisco. That makes New York look as real as Nantucket would make a tin soldier. Besides, New York is provincial. It never looks more so than from the wind-swept hills overlooking San Francisco bay."

"I only regret," she said, "that I did not go to the other coast. I am sure I would have liked to see the San Francisco idea, and her people would have been fond of me. Such wonderful human understanding I have never found outside of a little corner in the world. In San Francisco they all seem to know, to feel, to understand things which have gone into making nations great and making are wonderful and love divine. They are real people, who really live."

Returns to Husband

PITTSBURG, June 13.—Displaying unusual tenderness, a husband for her husband, James Hever, who was at one time her riding instructor, and from whom she has been living apart for nearly two years, Mrs. Nancy Carnegie-Hever, the favorite niece of Andrew Carnegie, has become reconciled to him on account of his illness, and is doing everything within her power to make his remaining days a period of peace and happiness. Hever, it is stated, has but a comparatively short time to live.

Hever has had her husband removed from a New York apartment house to a cottage, which she has rented on Long Island. The four children are with them there.

Hever was trying a new horse at Sheepshead bay in 1909 when the animal stumbled over a fence and fell on Hever. Eventually his whole body was paralyzed. In the latter part of last January he was taken to the hospital for the removal of two tumors on the spine, but the operation was not successful.

Torn From Bride

WHITE SALMON, Wash., June 13.—To be torn from his bride as he alighted from the train from Portland at night, blindfolded and "bound and gagged," and thrown into a jail cell, was the fate of a young man who was taken to the White Salmon river, where he was left all night alone in the woods, was the reception Harold Brown received at the hands of his friends. His bride was taken to the home of one of her friends for the night.

Brown, a young man from the east, engaged in developing a fruit ranch, was married to Miss Jessie Holmes of this place in Portland during the New Year festival, and intended to keep the matter a secret as long as possible, for he was a member of the Columbia Bachelor's club, whose members had sworn to remain unmarried for one year. The kidnapping was taken to the home of one of her friends for the night.

Brown was found in the woods by strangers, who released him and brought him to town this morning.

Child Bride at Trial

SAN RAFAEL, June 13.—Sitting beside her mother in the courtroom of District Attorney Thomas P. Boyd yesterday, little Edna Snowden was a mute observer of those who went in and out of the courtroom attending the trial of her former husband, Joseph Pistolesi, indicted for perjury. The child, who was 14 years of age in April, has no desire to go back to her 40-year-old husband. She looks upon her elopement and flight to San Diego as incidents of an exciting game, much the same as prisoner's base and other childish adventures she enjoyed before Pistolesi took her away from the grammar school.

"I never want to go back to him," she said. "It was afraid of him. Sometimes he spoke crossly to me when I did not do things just to please him. I like the way I am dressed now better than the way he dressed me."

Jilted Man Because She Loved Him

English Women Too Cautious

LADY WARD, who expresses her opinion of English women.

LONDON.—Lady Ward, who has accompanied her husband, Joseph Ward, the New Zealand Premier, to this country, has been expressing her views of Englishwomen freely.

When talking with an Englishwoman who was not an old friend she said, she often felt conversation would not go far beyond an exchange of formalities unless she herself suggested topics or asked questions. This was not, she felt, because Englishwomen had little to say, but because they were too reserved, too cautious, too formal even, to say it. They were remarkably well-informed, and once the ice had been broken talked fluently and with conviction on a subject, particularly if it were a weighty one.

In London women seldom waxed eloquent over trifles; their conversation was more of the solid kind, and not often very animated. There was more than a touch of scholarship about many Englishmen, and their education in the narrower sense, their reading, seemed much with them. Hence, perhaps, the noticeable absence of self-assertion in their manner.

Englishwomen impressed her as being solid rather than fastidious, in the way they dressed. The clothes of London women were made of the best materials that could be obtained; but the best was not made of the materials. Englishwomen never dressed unfashionably, but they did not often dress with distinction.

SCORES THEIR HOME STANDARD

PORTLAND, Ore.—Holding that both were equally to blame and that neither was entitled to a divorce, Judge Kawanaugh denied the prayer of Bernard Velguth for a divorce from his beautiful young wife and scored both for what he termed their low standards of living.

Velguth sat with downcast eyes as the judge announced his decision, but Mrs. Velguth looked squarely at the court with cheeks aflame.

Then, approaching her husband, Mrs. Velguth put out her hand and said, "Ben, won't you shake hands with me?"

Velguth turned abruptly from the woman who had married him in an effort to keep him out of the penitentiary, and she was led, weeping, from the courtroom.

"The standard of living in this household was a false and perverted standard," said Judge Kawanaugh in announcing his decision. Joy riding, roadhouses, grill life and such like are not conducive to happy homes. In law, as in morals, there are no two standards of right and wrong, one for the woman and one for the man."

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—The strange excuse that she had contracted consumption from her former husband and that she couldn't think of marrying the man she loved, after that, is to be the defense of Mrs. Minnie Bickling, a wealthy widow, 35 years old, who is being sued in the circuit court for $100,000 damages because of breach of promise to marry, by Martin Kapp of St. Louis.

Mrs. Bickling said she had lost no love for the St. Louis man—she still thinks of him as before. She says it was for his sake, for his future happiness, she jilted him.

Unfathomable, resourceful, Mrs. Bickling admitted nothing and denied but little. Her attorney, who took her deposition recently in San Antonio, where she has been since the breach of promise suit was brought. Kapp's attorneys, Guthrie, Gamble & Street, were present to cross-examine her. Mrs. Bickling will not be present at the trial of the case, which is on the docket for hearing late this month.

LOVE PSYCHOLOGY.

Kapp's attorneys have evolved a theory of love psychology to use in prosecution of this suit as intricate as the theories advanced by Mrs. Bickling.

"Mrs. Bickling was quick to marry—a sort of victim of love at first sight—it will be shown," W. F. Guthrie, Kapp's attorney, said. "This is judged by her past as well as present marriage record. Her first husband was a $50 a month drug clerk, whom she met when working in Arkansas as a nurse. The acquaintanceship lasted three weeks. She went to Nevada, Mo. After a short period of letter writing the two were married in St. Louis. He died four years afterward. "When barely past 30 she married Bickling, 70 years old. This, too, was after a short acquaintanceship. He lived a year or a little more. She inherited nearly $300,000 from him. It was from her first husband, she alleged, she contracted consumption."

Mrs. Bickling admitted in her deposition she met Kapp in Denver during the summer of 1904.

Kapp claims they were childhood sweethearts in Lebanon, Mo., and that Mrs. Bickling asked to meet him during the Denver visit. She denies they were childhood sweethearts.

ADDRESSED HIM AS "DEAR MARTIN"

"I did not ask him to write to me or taking leave," she testified, but a slip of paper with her address in Kansas City, she admitted, was in her handwriting.

Last fall Kapp came here to visit her. This was after many letters had been exchanged. A postal card written him was offered in evidence. "Dear Martin," it read. "This is a picture of my bungalow I told you about, but it looks much finer on the inside than the picture shows." Also several letters were offered in evidence. One of them spoke of the time when he was to manage her business affairs. She admitted she wrote these letters, but she did not know why. Kapp came to Kansas City three months after their renewal of their friendship in Denver. They met three or four times downtown, but always by accident, she testified.

That winter Mrs. Bickling went to California. She is alleged to have told Kapp she would write to him. He waited month after month, but no letters came. It was on this trip she claims she discovered the trace of consumption, and "For dear Martin's sake decided not to marry him."

HUSBAND'S FACE A FOOTSTOOL

PITTSBURG, Pa.—A jury here decided that a woman has a perfect right to sleep at the foot of the bed with her feet resting on her husband's face. Mrs. Stella Derringer had sued her husband, W. B. Derringer, a wealthy wagon manufacturer, because, she said, he repeatedly punched her. Derringer testified that his wife took delight in sleeping at the foot of the bed with her feet resting on his face and doing many other things to which he was not accustomed.

The parents are now paving the way for the movement and it is asserted by the leaders in the new venture that manual training is a necessity in all American institutions today.

Manual training has proved a success in all the local schools, which the arts and crafts taught in all the grades and is enjoyed by the students.

Browns in Tank

SACRAMENTO, June 13.—With her doll clasped in her arms, 9-year-old Selma McKenney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. McKenney, of Oak Park, tumbled from a box into a 5000-gallon water tank and was drowned in four feet of water.

Selma's 7-year-old sister Irene called her mother, who was only a few yards away.

Mrs. McKenney hastily summoned help, but the child sank quickly to the bottom of the irrigation tank and later efforts at resuscitation failed.

UNIQUE CONVENTION FEATURE OF EXERCISES

On Friday evening, June 3, the pupils of Mrs. Hambleton's grammar and commercial school, 373 Fifth avenue, were seen in an "International Dairy Convention" at Castle Hall. The affair was one long to be remembered by the boys and girls of the school. The girls represented milk maids carrying milk pails and milk stools, and the boys looked the part of genuine cowboys. The convention was carried on amid much laughter and applause.

The Rev. R. Franklin Hart, curate of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, made a short address and presented the certificates of promotion and the diplomas.

The graduates were David Jorgensen and Alvin De Puy, Miss Antoinette St. Pierre and Miss Edna Cleveland. From the commercial department Miss Mildred Palmer was awarded a diploma.

Those who received certificates of promotion were Dorothy Goodyear, Margaret Jorgensen, Ethel Durker, Margaret Sage, Dorothy Taylor, Jessie Dalton, June Judson, Kenneth Barnhart, Robert Rose and Alva Denny.

The hall was decorated with flowers and ferns and the school colors. The pupils presented Mrs. Hambleton with a dress-suit case.

Miss Stella Linka, a pupil in the commercial department, played a violin solo and received generous applause.

PARK COMMISSION TO BE ABOLISHED
IN ALAMEDA

The Ousting of Superintendent Dunn Starts Rumors of Changes.

COUNCIL COMMITTEE
MAY RUN PLAYGROUNDS

The Ordinance Creating Board Likely to Be Repealed by Town Officials.

ALAMEDA, June 13. — That the notice given M. H. Dunn, superintendent of parks and playgrounds, that his services will not be needed after June 17, will cause the dissolution of the Park and Playground Commission is thought to be certain. Ever since this commission was organized it has been the source of some controversy.

The members of the Park Commission chose the night before Mayor Noy's marriage as the time for taking action on the dismissal of Dunn, who is backed by the chief executive in his position.

NOY ON HONEYMOON

Mayor Noy is on his honeymoon and is not expected back for several weeks. What action he will take when he returns to Alameda is a matter of conjecture, but it is thought that he will take steps to abolish the park and playground commission and put its affairs in charge of a committee of the City Council.

Dunn's dismissal was advocated by F. P. McLennan, who resigned several weeks ago as a member of the park and playground commission. Superintendent Dunn, it is said, objected to having Miss Ramsay, the supervisor of play in McKinley Park, domiciled in the same house in which his family is located. This house is owned by the city and Dunn's stand caused an open rupture with McLennan. Mayor Noy took Dunn's part, it is said, and this caused McLennan to resign.

NO SUCCESSOR NAMED

No successor has been appointed to take McLennan's place and under the charter he sits with the commission until his place is filled. He sat with the commission Saturday night when it decided to oust Dunn.

The Park and Playground Commission was organized by a city ordinance and in order to abolish it all that will be necessary will be to annul this measure. This will be done, it is believed, at a meeting of the City Council in the near future.

In addition to this, Mrs. Reeves testified, the alleged fugitive failed to provide her with food and clothing.

CAMORRA HEARING ENDS IN HUBBUB

The Prosecutor Tries to Show Cuocolo Dies While a Member of Gang.

VITERBO, Italy, June 13. — At the trial of the Camorristas today the crown prosecutor advanced several tactics to establish that Gennaro Cuocolo was a member of the Camorra when he was murdered. These witnesses described a burglary which they said had been organized by Cuocolo and executed by Giuseppe Salvo and a band of followers.

Salvo who is accused of being one of the actual assassins of Cuocolo and his wife, admitted the burglary but denied the participation of Cuocolo, whom he said he did not know. He added that the crime had been planned by a certain Califra, who had subsequently confessed to the crime and was now in prison.

President Bianchi replied that the accused could not make such a demand. Counsel for the defense supported Salvo's request so vigorously that a hubbub ensued and the judge declared the sitting suspended.

The couple were married by means of a photo wedding, and the woman alleges that she had no sooner arrived at the wedding until she was sold into slavery and placed in a house at 832 Ross alley, her spouse receiving $500 for her.

After receiving the money, the woman sets forth that Nita demanded $250 more, and when she paid it, he signed a receipt acknowledging a separation between them. She said that the woman never saw daylight, it is claimed, but was finally rescued by the federal authorities in February.

PLANS FOR A SPLENDID NEW STORE

Expansion of Trade Necessitates Occupancy of Entire Building

For many years past a magnificent hardware business has been carried on by the John P. Maxwell Hardware Company in a space which seemed much too small.

In addition to its large retail store at Fourteenth and Washington, where building supplies, ranges, general hardware and novelties were carried, the company has a large store on Fourteenth near Grove, where a splendid stock of modern electrical appliances are carried.

These and other household necessities are also sold there in great variety. Last week Mr. John P. Maxwell, president of the company, announced that the company was planning to expand its business.

"If there is anyone in Oakland who thinks there is a big business in this old cigar business," said Fred Osgood, the druggist, this morning. "I pay the same for my cigars as all the other big dealers pay and sell them for 20 per cent less, which is mighty near cost."

"Where do you make out?" was the reply. "What do you stay with?"

"Because it's great advertising," answered the druggist. "It brings customers to my store, and in a broad sense pays well. For example, I have a nickel cigar called 'El Cuto.' This cigar sells all over the East for three for 25 cents, and in many places for 10 cents straight. I have a standing offer of $1000 reward to anyone who can prove that this cigar does not cost wholesale over 4 cents apiece. There are hundreds of men who come

BERKELEY POLICE
SIGNALS STUDIED

Mayor and Chief of Police of San Diego Make Tour of Inspection.

BERKELEY, June 13. — Following an official inspection of the police and fire alarm telegraph and signal systems used by the Berkeley police and fire departments by Mayor Dodson and Chief of Police Wilson of San Diego yesterday afternoon, the southern city will probably adopt the same system in connection with its plan for the general improvement of its police and fire departments.

The officials spent yesterday afternoon in a detailed study of the mechanical means by which Berkeley policemen report to headquarters hourly from their beats. By pulling a lever in any part of the city, the officer on his beat causes a record to be made at headquarters of the date, hour and box from which he "calls in." A policeman may not report from a box distant from his beat without the tell-tale evidence of his having been away from his assigned territory being printed on the tape at the City Hall station.

FLASH SIGNALS.

The same system enables headquarters to call the eight or ten men on their beats at night within three minutes. This has been done by means of the signal lights. The red lamps in various parts of the city flash the numbers of the different officers, who report in from their boxes.

When a residence burglary took place recently the victim telephoned from his home to the police station. Within five minutes the night sergeant caused four patrolmen to appear at the house which had been robbed, giving the residences who had informed police headquarters the surprise of his life. He had barely finished telephoning when the quartet appeared, as if from the clouds.

The local department is in need of fifteen more signal lights, however, for parts of the city which cannot now be easily reached by means of the system. The lights needed were included in the bond issue which was recently voted down.

The fire alarm system is separate from that of the police. Although Berkeley is now better provided for in the matter of police and fire alarm telegraph than San Diego, the southern city has more than as many policemen as there are on the local force.

Matty Baldwin's Manager Makes Novel Offer to Boxer Welsh Regarding Weight

Manager Al McLean, representing Baldwin, phoned THE TRIBUNE this morning making a novel weight proposition to Freddie Welsh or his manager, Baron Long. "I want Long and Welsh and the public to know that Matty Baldwin came to the coast with good intentions," said McLean, "and I want everyone to know that we will be the last to back out of this match. Even though this is a fact, however, we want our rights, and we will insist on getting them."

"When we left the East it was with the agreement that we were to meet a lightweight boxer at either 133 pounds at 6 o'clock or at ringside. Now Welsh demands a weight being taken at 2 o'clock when he knows he is to meet a man who cannot weigh more than 132 pounds going into the ring while he would weigh about 137 pounds or more."

What is the answer? Welsh is afraid to meet Baldwin on even terms. Welsh and his manager have said that Baldwin is afraid. Well, here is the offer I'll make: Let Welsh agree to weigh 133 pounds at the ringside and I'll bet him $500 that we will win the contest. There is an inducement for the Britisher, for if he is confident of winning he can make $500 by taking off a few pounds."

By EDDIE SMITH.

Unless Montana Dan Sullivan has a decided change of feeling come over him between last night and the time he steps into the ring with Frank Klaus at the Oakland Wheelmen boxing show Thursday night, the Pittsburgh champion will find that he is facing one of the most confident men he has ever met in the ring.

With the conclusion of his work of yesterday Sullivan gave evidence of perfect physical condition and when his manager, Baron Long, suggested that the older of the fighting Sullivan family had little to fear from this standpoint, Dan came right back at the manager with "Well, there's many another thing that we don't have to fear that Klaus and his friends think we do," said Daniel, "for he'll be the most surprised fellow I've seen since I came to the coast when he finds that instead of letting him set the pace to suit himself, as most of his other opponents have done, that I make the going to suit myself."

"I am sure that I can do this for I am cleverer than he is and I am stronger. Jack (meaning his brother Jack) has had the experience of facing Klaus and he is of the opinion that I'll win from him without much trouble. I'm not being fooled by the fact that my own brother is being carried off by a desire to see me win in this manner for I saw Klaus and my brother box in New York and it was then that I made up my mind that I could beat Klaus, and I'm going to do the trick Thursday night."

SULLIVAN IN EXCELLENT TRIM.

Sullivan is certainly in fine trim for the contest and in view of the fact that it is by far the most important one of his career, it is to his credit that he is so confident. Sullivan is already down to the required 160 pounds that must be made at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of the contest so he has nothing to worry him in this respect. Yesterday he boxed six rounds during the afternoon work in the gymnasium and in the morning put in an hour and a half on the road. Dan has some trouble in getting men to stick with him on the road for he is a demon at this work. At one time the Montana pugilist put in about 45 minutes at his work before a good-sized gathering of the pugilistic clans. When Klaus puts in 45 minutes in the gymnasium it will always mean that he has done some work.

KLAUS A GLUTTON FOR WORK.

The Pittsburgher is a glutton for work and when in the gymnasium he never rests a moment. In the three rounds he boxed with Dave Mills the German-American gave plenty of evidence of the manner in which he can be expected to perform when in the ring with Sullivan. Klaus is not a boxer; he is not one of the fellows who crouch low and cover up; he is no the sort to back up, and he doesn't stop when hit on the nose. Klaus is the sort of boxer who must leave his corner with something of a rush and from the time he is allowed to start to the finish he must keep plunging in, taking a punch to give one, and if he is to win he must do so by beating the other fellow in a fair exchange of arms in which the strongest and hardest fighter must survive the struggle. Klaus is much after the style of Ketchum in that he must win by speed and hitting power and unless indications tell the fans, he will prove just as sensational as the Michiganian was.

WEIGHT QUESTION IS GETTING SERIOUS.

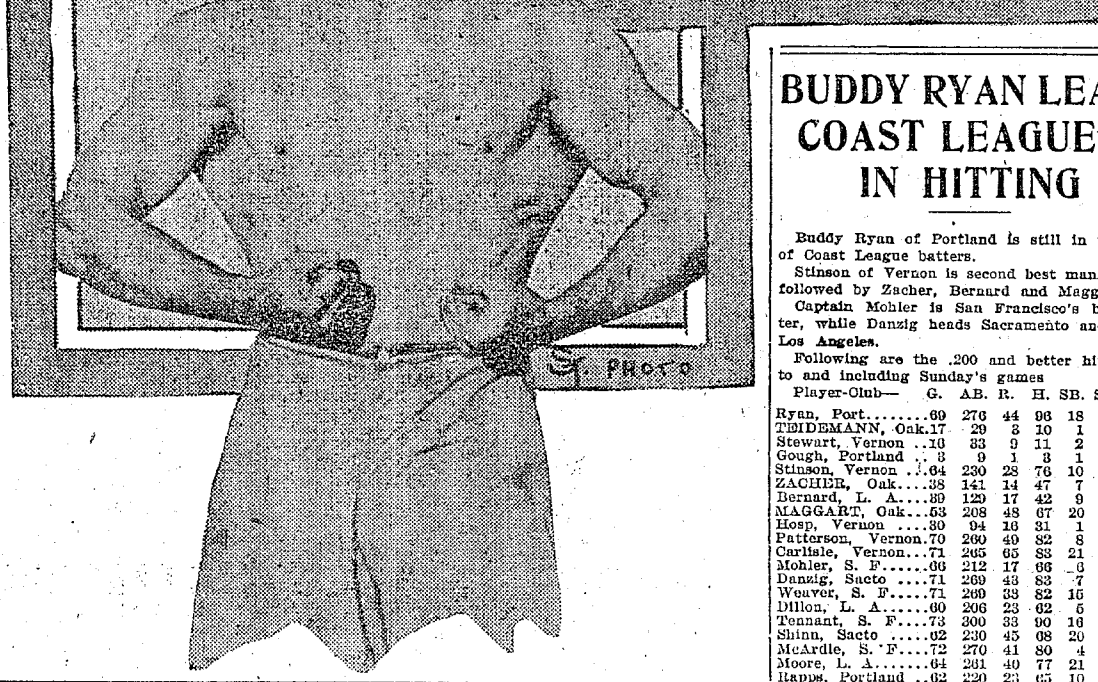

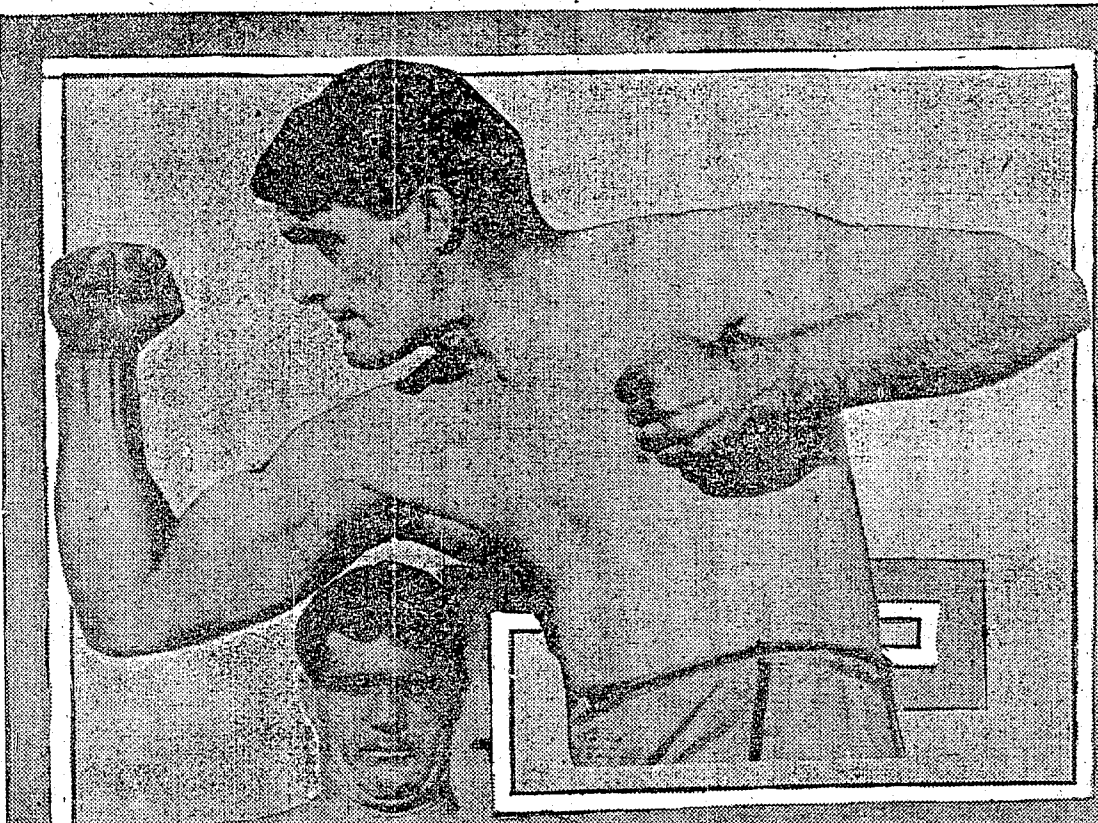

The squabble over the weight question between Matty Baldwin and Freddie Welsh is growing serious. Yesterday the managers of the boxers met with Promoter Clark and after a wrangle of half an hour or more they were no nearer to a settlement than before they met; indeed if anything they were farther away from one.

Al McLean still insists that he is managing a bona fide lightweight in Baldwin and that he will not agree to have him go into the ring with a man who is so much the heavier that he will not agree to make the lightweight limit four hours prior to the match. "Before we started for the coast I had an agreement with Clark that we would meet any lightweight in the world at 133 pounds at either ringside or at 6 o'clock," says McLean, "and all that I ask is that this agreement is lived up to."

"If Clark failed to specify any weight for Welsh, as Long claims he did, then that is his fault, but as it is so much the heavier that he will not agree to make the lightweight limit four hours prior to the match, we were demanding? Welsh always forces McLean to make a weight that weakens him when they meet, but now that we ask him to make the same figure as the fish McLeanland to make, he winks. There is one thing in our favor in this matter; Matty is not a pauper boxer and he can pack his grips and

DIAMOND GOSSIP

At the last moment yesterday in Los Angeles Manager Wolverton concluded to play off a postponed game with the Hooglanders, and celebrated the day by trouncing Hap's gang by a score of 7 to 5 after eleven innings of fighting baseball.

The victory of the Oaks helped them a wee bit and helped the Seals a whole lot for it showed Happy back into third place.

San Francisco went to Sacramento yesterday afternoon all primed for the Hooglanders excursion, down the river, to the big chief of the Seals informing him that he would like to see the boys practice. This was a hard blow to the team, but the boss of the Seals wanted the men to use the diamond up in Sacramento, for somewhere they don't tally much there.

Los Angeles and Oakland came to town this morning and this afternoon will battle on the preserves over the bay. Wolverton, optimistic as ever, was satisfied with the way the team played down the bay and thinks these out of seven from the jinx team. Verne, who was a good couldn't hit their stride, while Ables didn't get a full chance to work. This week though, Wolverton has hopes of their rounding out and looks for better looking trial sheet when the week is over.

Sacramento returns home this week after a three series jaunt on the road and their record is a mighty good one. Any old team that goes on the road for a spell and breaks even is pretty well satisfied but the Senators did better than that. First they won five out of seven from the Hooglanders, broke even with Hogan and won four of seven from the Seals a total of thirteen victories and nine defeats.

San Francisco left Harry Suter at home because Harry does not seem to be able to stand the rough tactics of the Sacramento team. Broke even with the Seals for the next week's series. Carl Zamiatina is still under the weather and will also hang around.

Big Fred Carmen was advised a few days ago to seek fame and glory as a member of the Louisville Club, is among those present and will be in action against the Oaks during the series this week. Glancing back over his record there is nothing to it to make him worth a very large piece of change for he won ten and lost twenty-three for that team.

And if he can't make good in the American Association, he won't make good here.

Manager Wolverton thinks that Gregory will do with plenty of work. Well, good, and if that proves a fact that it will be well to carry the man, but there are twenty-five thousand rooting fans who are for the home team first, last and all the time and they want to be shown.

Zacher was the best hitter of the Oaks in the south, but at that Hoffman and Maggart, clouted out a few too. Oakland made several more extra base hits than Vernon and on the west played strong and better in spots than did Hoogland's bunch. It wasn't class beating the Oaks by any means, but just plain luck and nothing else.

Cutshaw has hit an awful slump in his hitting and all week in the south got but one lone bingle. Funny how a good player hits the tobbogan now and then but it won't last long, and the fans can look for Cutty to come back and come back strong.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—George Chapman defeated B. Brunner in the first night's play of the 14-2 talk line challenge match at Wright's parlor last night, by the score of 200 to 177. Both players had good control of the ivory and made many brilliant shots.

The champion made an unfinished run of 41 while Brunner's best break was 28. Chapman's average was 6-2-33, while Brunner's was 5-12-55.

The men will meet this evening in the second block of the 600 point match and tomorrow night will wind up the exciting match.

FLATER POUNDS OUT HIT THAT WINS FOR OAKLAND

His Timely Single in Eleventh Inning Sends Runner to Plate and His Pitching Helps

LOS ANGELES, June 13.—The Never Say Die Oaks stayed over in this burg yesterday afternoon and gave Happy Hogan's Hooglanders a trimming after eleven innings of torrid baseball. When they grabbed the Owl later in the evening Manager Wolverton of the Oaks was feeling somewhat better for it made the series, read three out of seven for his gang and the victory put them up a rung or two in the ladder.

Jack Flater who got a merry lauding from the Hooglanders on his last appearance on the hill was in better form yesterday and while pounded hard, managed to wade through the seance with the help of his team mates.

With the score in a knot after ten innings of snarling and fighting Flater got in the limelight with a clean single to centerfield that put the sixth run or enough to win, over the plate. Pearce, who was on the bags also, scored, making the final tally 7 to 5 in favor of the men from the big town up north.

ZACHER STARTS THE TROUBLE.

The game was full of riot scenes, but the last counts for the most so we will get busy there first. Zacher opened with a double to right center. Hettling was out for bunting the third strike. Wares sacrificed, putting Zacher on the base to the last corner. Hitt walked Pearce, as Flater looked easier; but Flater hit the second ball through the pitcher's box, greatly exceeding the speed limit. Zacher scored with the winning run, but this was not enough. With Pearce on second Monte Pfl drove a clean single to right field and Pearce made a beautiful slide for the plate, reaching the crucial spot some six inches in front of the flying peg from Stinson in right.

Vernon started like winners in the first inning, when Kane doubled to left and scored on Patterson's single to center. Patterson scored when Stinson doubled to right center.

PEARCE A HANDY MAN.

The transbay pirates came to tie in the third and it was awful. Pearce singled; Flater also singled to right, placing Pearce on second. Pfl hit to Hoop, who threw wild to second to catch Flater. Before Burrell could corral the sphere Pearce had scored and to add insult to injury Hoop dropped the return throw to catch Pfl at second. With Pfl on second and Flater on third, Hoffman hit Castleton

LITTLE HOPE FOR FIEND'S VICTIM

A. J. Baird Is Said to Be Near Death at Elmhurst Home.

ELMHURST, June 13.—Physicians watching at the bedside of A. J. Baird, a seventy-year-old real estate man, who was assaulted by an unidentified man last Thursday morning as he stepped on the rear porch of his home, state that his chances of recovery are slight. The most serious handicap is the fact that several years ago the aged man suffered from an attack of heart trouble.

Baird is well known in real estate and insurance lines on both sides of the bay, having been at one time a prominent land agent in San Francisco. In his declining years he settled in Elmhurst, where he has been in business ever since.

'MUD HEN' PILES UP NEW MACHINE RECORD

Cadillac Covers 127 Miles to Sacramento in 2 Hours 46 Minutes.

46 MILES AN HOUR IS AVERAGE TIME

The Mosquitoes and Meadow Larks Do Much to Hinder the Trip.

(By J. A. HOULIHAN.)
Don Lee and the Cadillac created another stir in the local automobile world yesterday when the model of this car which has been annexing records of every description throughout the state hung up a new mark from Oakland to Sacramento and return. The "Mud Hen," by which name the particular car is known, driven by T. J. Beaudet, left the mile yesterday morning at 3 a. m. and two hours and 46 minutes later, to be exact, 2 hours, 46 minutes and 45 seconds, it pulled up in front of the Sacramento Union office in the capital city. The distance over the route covered is 127 miles and the average time made was close to 46 miles an hour, remarkably fast time considering the nature of the roads between these two points.

Returning, the car reached the mile at 10 a. m. Beaudet was at the wheel, has been furnishing surprises of the most spectacular nature with his Cadillac. Slipping away in the dead of night and unannounced, as his fancy seems to dictate, each week finds him unearthing a new goal to strive for—and thus far, he has accomplished every mark for which he has striven, so that today practically every record stunt which some previous car has secured now rests with this man and his ever faithful car—the latter by the way, one of a strictly stock nature.

MOSQUITOS IN WAY.
When asked if faster time could be made between the capital city and Oakland, Beaudet remarked—and there may be more truth than comedy in his statement—that because of mosquitoes and meadow larks banked up in front of him, he was faster than that made could be accomplished, driving twice the distance. No attempt was made to make a round-trip record. The roads between the two cities are in many places and for stretches of a considerable distance, not the best in the world and nothing but a well built car could maintain the pace set by the one which has just negotiated the distance.

An illustration of the time reported to have been made between some of the towns along the route affords a fair idea of the wonderful record. Hayward, a distance of 17 miles from the mile was made in twenty minutes' time. From Hayward to Livermore is a distance of eighteen miles over a country with many hills and roads not exactly of a boulevard nature. This was made in twenty-eight minutes. From Livermore, lays a stretch of forty-three miles. Sixty-one minutes was the time it took to speed over this portion of the route. Then came the final spurt to Sacramento over a boulevard road of some forty-nine miles. The time made on this stretch was fifty-eight minutes.

Beaudet has a good word to say for the Morgan & Wright tires and the lighting system that of K. W. manufacture with which the record breaker was fitted. To each of these and to Valvoline oil, which he used, he gives credit, he has nothing but praise, all three sharing in aiding the car to victory.

MOTOR CLUB MEET TONIGHT.

Tonight the Motor Club will hold their first meeting since the opening of the club house at San Leandro. Business of vital importance to the club is announced by the officers and a big gathering of members is looked for. The meeting is called for 8 p. m. at the club's headquarters in San Leandro.

For the present at least the idea of having a National Circuit controlled by the A. A. A. with a regular schedule of racing dates taking in the various cities of importance in the east, finally reaching California during the winter months, has been abandoned, according to an announcement by Percy Walker, Pacific coast representative of the body which controls the automobile racing in the United States. Discussion of the matter with the racing team managers at the recent 500 mile race in Indianapolis, of the tentative list of contest dates, he claims, brought to light the fact that the number which it was proposed to hold were too many in number and the period within which they were to be held extending to the first of November covered a period too long to insure success and contained support of sufficient contestants to justify their designation as "National" events.

COLE ERECTING NEW PLANT.

According to advices just received by the Pacific Motor Car Company from Indianapolis, the Cole Motor Car Company, manufacturers of the Cole "30," are to begin the immediate erection of a new factory building in that city. The decision to build a new plant was made because of the need of facilities for a greater output to meet rapidly increasing demand for Cole cars. Beside having a much larger output capacity than the present plant, the new building is being designed with particular regard for the convenience of the employees.

Most of the Americans who are in London to witness the coronation this month have their cars with them and are spending a good bit of the time according to Keith L. Goode, manager of the Diamond force in Europe who has just returned to his headquarters at 5 Rue Denis-Poisson, Paris, after a trip to the English capital.

Goode says indications point to more American motorists in Europe this summer than ever before. After the coronation the majority of Americans will ship their cars to France and spend some time on the continent.

These tourists, of course, seek American-made tires for renewals while the European demand for tires of American manufacture is growing greater everyday.

FAMOUS SOLOISTS TO JOIN WITH 1000 VOICES IN CONCERT 15,000 Bibles to Be Carried in Street Parade

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Next Monday evening, June 19, the big chorale concert which is to precede the formal opening of the thirteenth annual international Sunday school convention will take place at the Coliseum on Baker street, and over 1000 voices, accompanied by an orchestra of 100 picked musicians, will be heard.

Since March 1, these singers, consisting of many soloists and prominent members of choirs from churches associated with this Sunday school work, have been rehearsing under the direction of Robert Husband. In 1901 Husband directed an Epworth League concert at the Mechanics' pavilion. He says that the present body of singers is the best that has ever come under his baton and at a rehearsal to be held Thursday night at the First Baptist church, at Market and Octavia streets, he expects to show wonderful results. Wallace A. Sabin, the organist, and J. J. Morris of Palo Alto will also act as directors with Husband. There will be an orchestral rehearsal at Lyric hall on Wednesday morning. The final rehearsal, when singers and instrumentalists will work in conjunction, will take place at the Coliseum the day of the concert.

PROMINENT SOLOISTS.

Prominent among the soloists is Miss Louise Brehany, a soprano, well known all over the east, but who will be heard for the first time in San Francisco in Costa's "I Will Extol Thee, O Lord." Miss Blanche Morrill, soprano, from Stockton, will play the Fantasia, Appassionata by Beethoven. St. Luke's Episcopal church male quartet, Charles F. Bullett, tenor; Carl E. Anderson, baritone; Clarence Oliver, first bass, and Wilfred Clavin, second bass, will sing "O Lord God of My Salvation" by Ford, and "Remember Now Thy Creator" by Bartlett. Some of the choral numbers will be Keller's American hymn, "The Radiant Morn," by Woodward, Mendelssohn's "Not Far," from the oratorio of "Elijah," "How Lovely Are the Messengers," by Mendelssohn; "Great and Marvelous," from the oratorio of the "Holy City," by Alfred R. Gaul; Mozart's "Gloria," from his Twelfth Mass; "By Babylon's Wave" of Gounod, and the "Hallelujah" from the oratorio of "The Messiah," by Handel. An orchestral number of peculiar interest will be the overture "St. Patrick at Tara," composed by the composer, Wallace A. Sabin. Two male choruses from Sabin's composition, "The March of the Kings," and "Veni Creator" will also be on the program. W. Fletcher Husband, organist of St. Luke's, will play the piano accompaniments and Mabel Jones and Lilla G. Ferderer will preside at the organ. Admission to the concert will be 50 cents.

15,000 TO CARRY BIBLES.

The great army of Christian workers will present a religious and musical spectacle on the afternoon of Friday, June 23, when it is expected that fully 15,000 men will pass in parade along the streets, each carrying a Bible. At the same time the demonstration these Bibles will be stacked upon a platform at the Coliseum, where the convention will be held, and when the purpose shall have been served, they will be distributed among the leading hotels.

Their division of this Bible army. Robert Dolling will be the grand marshal. The leading merchants of the city have signified their intention of closing their places of business during the time of the parade so that such of their employees as so desire may join the line of march.

4000 BIDDEN TO TAFT ANNIVERSARY

Reception Will Be Most Largely Attended Held in the White House.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The reception which the President and Mrs. Taft give on June 19, the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage, probably will be the most largely attended function ever held in the White House. More than 3000 invitations already have been sent out and each day the President is suggesting more names, so that the low estimate is that 4000 will be invited and that of these at least three-fourths will attend.

The New Year's receptions have brought more thousands than that to the White House, but those receptions are not by invitation, and the crowd merely shakes hands with the President and departs. At the silver wedding celebration refreshments will be served, there will be dancing in the East room, and an "overflow" garden party in the White House grounds.

The guest list will include friends and acquaintances of the President and Mrs. Taft from all parts of the country. Practically everybody in official life in Washington has been invited, and invitations have been sent to persons who have entertained the President on his trips. Members of the Republican National committee, the official "notification" committee, which informed the President of his nomination, to many clergymen of all denominations, to editors and to hundreds of others.

Mrs. Taft will not be present, for the physicians still wish her to avoid excitement. Miss Helen Taft will stand by her father's side to receive the guests. This will be the third silver wedding celebration of a President of the United States and his wife. President and Mrs. Taft celebrated their twenty-fifth anniversary on August 22, 1873, at their cottage at Long Branch, and President and Mrs. Hayes held a levee at the White House New Year's eve, 1877.

FIND REAL 'PORT OF MISSING MEN'

Negro Murder Syndicate Discovered in Hills of West Virginia.

CHICAGO, June 13.—There is a "Port of Missing Men" in real life. Nestling snugly in a remote district of the mountains of West Virginia, terrorized by a "murder syndicate" of negro thugs, it faces deliverance through Chicago enterprise and detective ingenuity. Bluefield is the name of the "port," and it is to their incautious selection of a Chicagoan as a victim that the members of its organized band of mercenary slayers probably will end their careers on the gallows or behind prison bars. C. W. Simpson, a traveling representative for A. M. Rothschild & Co., is the latest victim of the assassins. His three murderers have confessed and are awaiting sentence. But they claim not to know where his body is, and it is their apparent fears to discuss this phase of their crime that has led to the theory that several traveling men who are said to have disappeared in that vicinity have been victims of this same trio of thugs or others allied, but not yet in custody.

C. S. Ellison of the credit department of Rothschild's, whose detective instincts and abilities were hitherto unsuspected even by himself, is the man who has started the hunt that is expected to continue until every member of the "murder syndicate" has been run to earth. Simpson's possession of $300 in cash and a diamond scarfpin led to his death. An incautious display of a roll of bills in a barber shop marked him as a profitable victim of the thugs.

ERROR IS COSTLY.
NEW YORK, June 13.—A jury in the supreme court yesterday brought in a verdict of $36,684 in favor of Stephen M. Weid & Co., cotton brokers, and against the Postal Telegraph Company for damages the plaintiff sustained in the transmission of a telegram to New Orleans. The plaintiffs alleged that they had telegraphed their New Orleans agent to sell 20,000 bales of cotton at $12.75, but that when the telegram reached the agent it read sell at $12.67. The plaintiffs asked for damages to the amount of $27,565, with interest. The jury gave them the full amount.
